College co-eds, young business women and home girls are among the hostesses everywhere who are exclaiming over the streamli moderne design of the season's new Toastmaster toaster. It is shown here with its equally new hospitality tray, providing an after-study snack for two fair collegians. The fully-automatic toaster and the tray, both totally different from previous models, have a number of innovations, including wooden lap trays which are replicas of the large tray. The popularity of this "tenth anniversary set" is sweeping the country where it is in demand for bridge luncheous teas widnight marks and where it is in demand for bridge luncheons, teas, midnight snacks and all informal gatherings.

Mother Nature cares for her children, the Indians believe. If a long, hard winter is in store, she gives them plenty of nuts to carry through If the season is to be short and open she is less generous.

The Indians gather the nuts each fall. They sell to a ready market at handsome prices-so handsome in fact that whites are making serious inroads into the industry. The tiny nuts bring from 35 to 50 cents a pound.

Passengers in the smoking compartment on my train were arguing about why railroad business is picking up.

A factory owner said it was because of Free pick-up-and-delivery of less than carload freight. The railroad calls for the LCL freight at shipper's door and delivers it to consignee's door.

on faster schedules.

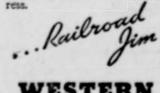

There was a school principal in the group and he said it was because train travel is so much cheaper for passengers. He said passenger fares are at the lowest point in history, withsubstantial reductions if you buy a round-trip ticket-and no more surcharge for riding in sleeping cars.

One man, a farmer, said he liked something he could depend on, that's why he was traveling by train.

Another man, a newspaper reporter, said people were in favor of railroad travel because it is by far the safest. He quoted a lot of statistics from a book called,"Live and Let Live."

A banker we all know by name said railroad tax paymentsmeana lotin this state.
