Did We Guess It?

"At sometime in your life you will have perhaps had a neighbor or friend say—Are you going into town today? I wish you would get me a little present for Mrs. so & so. Don't pay more than a dollar for it." Then when you got to the store and looked over the gift line you thought, "Will she like this, etc., etc."

Well this is just the problem we have when we go to the gift sample room except we don't know whether it is to be for Mrs. so & so, or Mr. so & so, or Bette, or Johnny, or Sweetheart or Baby, nor the maximum or minimum price which they will be willing to pay, but for the last seven years we have made some very good guesses, and as our Holiday line comes in this year and we check it off we think we have made the best guess that we ever have. Come in and look it over and see if we are right. One thing we do know is that we must have a variety of standard attractive merchandise at a popular price, and we think we have that. It is rather early to advertise for the Holidays but our gift line is suitable for birthdays, parties, weddings, or whatever the occasion may be.

Also remember we have a nice line of Halloween novelties, as masks, napkins, plates, crepe paper, etc.
