Musings

By an Innocent Bystander

Hey, fellers, don't shoot! We surrender. Me and the other feller will now go way back and sit down. We know when we are licked.

But seriously, brethren, this writer is not so egotistical as to believe he alone is right, when so large a majority have said he is wrong. After all, and above all, we are all Americans, thank God, and the will of the majority rules and we hope ever will.

And in that spirit we stand today ready to accept the verdict and to do our part as best we may for the welfare of this great country of ours. President Franklin Delano Roosevelt has been almost unanimously chosen our leader for the next four years and although we have not always agreed with him we shall do all that in us lies to help the holder of that high office to bring "peace on earth, good will to men."

And now that the tumult and the shouting have died we can settle down to the serious business of being real American citizens and, we hope, "good neighbors." The campaign has been a bitter one—too bitter at times. But all that should now be forgotten and a new start made that the entire country should prosper.

In the state, we are glad to note that Senator Charles McNary is once more a winner. We feel confident Oregon can have no better friend in Washington than he. And Rufus Homan has been too good an official to lose. We are glad to read of his retention. The same is true of Mr. Van Winkle, who for many years has served us well as attorney general.

In the county, the winners stand just about as we had a hunch they would. We have feel for a long time that if ever a really competent attorney, of wide acquaintance and long years residence among us, made a real fight for the district attorney's job, he would get it. Mr. Coddling has made a very competent official and a very conscientious one, but we have sensed a feeling that a change in that office would be welcome.

Mr. Newman has a clean record of faithful work for his clients and his community and is well qualified for the position. In the case of our state representatives, we again were not surprised. There has been a feeling floating about that every man who had a seat in the last legislature which passed so much foolish legislation, such as the old age pension bill just killed by the people, and the Unemployment Insurance act, which works such a hardship on small businesses, should stay at home and repent.

And we feel mighty fine over the magnificent victory of Ralph Billings. Ralph has made one of the best commissioners this county has had for a long time and here, hoping he will stay on the job for a long time. And the same holds true of George Carter. We would have felt a whole lot worse today if these two men had lost out.

And then that pillar of the temple, "Blin" Coleman. What would we do without him. May his shadow never grow less. But we shall always feel a pang of regret when we think of A. C. Walker, in our opinion more sinned against than sinning. But in Mr. Sweeney we feel we shall find a faithful, competent and courteous successor.

In our own town, the election was almost a farce. Nobody seemed to care a hang one way or another and the election went by default to those who had nerve enough to get a petition filled out. No one had any effective opposition and Mr. Isaacson as mayor and Mr. Tex as recorder will have the assistance of the entire old council.

We hear there were some freak votes cast. One ballot was properly folded and cast but left entirely blank as to cross marks. Several others voted for Roosevelt and Frank Perl—just those two alone. And one crazy son-of-a-gun voted for all five of the presidential candidates and so on and so on.

DOLLAR DAYS TO BE STAGED BY VALLEY RESIDENTS

Friday and Saturday of this week are Dollar Days at Medford and local stores. For days the merchants have been busy planning for the big events. Thousands of worthwhile bargains will be on sale those two days for One Buck.

Local businessmen have joined the Medford stores in offering all sorts of merchandise at this special price.

Be sure and read the advertisements in this paper and then mention the paper when buying from these concerns. They are offering wonderful bargains for Friday and Saturday.

National Commander D.A.V. Auxiliary to Visit in Medford

Dolly Secord, national commander of Disabled American Veterans auxiliary will be in Medford, Nov. 6th and 7th.

Lillian Williams, National Committee woman and Arda Shires, Department commander will accompany the National Commander from Portland.

Special meetings Friday night at 8 o'clock and a one o'clock luncheon Saturday have been arranged in honor of Mrs. Secord.

Plan Big Parade On Armistice Day

One of the finest patriotic parades in many years is looked for when the annual Armistice Day procession moves through the Medford business district Wednesday, November 11. Under the able direction of Col. W. H. Falne arrangements are rapidly rounding into final form and many organizations have already made plans for participation with not only marching bodies but for floats as well. Invitations have been extended to all patriotic orders, lodges, schools, service clubs, granges and community clubs as well as local business firms and a whole-hearted spirit of co-operation has been received by the Legion parade committee. Several outside communities a Jackson county are planning entries including Ashland, which will be represented by the Legion Kliffes drum corps and a large delegation of World War veterans.

Maple Family Hold Reunion in Seattle

Alvin Maple of Central Point, Or., made his annual visit to Seattle yesterday, so the Maples, one of the oldest pioneer family names in the city, held a reunion in their home at 5937 24th Ave. S.

Besides Alvin Maple, his brother, Charles S. Maple, was there, and so were their twin sisters, Mrs. Dora Maple Brown and Mrs. Cora Maple Patton. All were born in Seattle, and all live in Seattle except Alvin Maple. Alvin is 65 years old, Charles 57, and the sisters—the first white twins born in King County—are 62. The four Maples of Maple Hill are the children of John W. Maple, one of the first King County treasurers. They are the grandchildren of Jacob Maple, who came to Seattle in 1851 and settled on the Duwamish.

The Maples are a sturdy stock. For example, 65-year-old Charles Maple announced:

"I'm good for at least forty years more."

The above is a copy of a story that appeared in a Seattle paper during Mr. Maple's visit there. Mr. Maple is the only one of the family that doesn't live within 10 miles of where they were born. The Maples returned last week from a two week visit in and near Seattle.

Eight lucky football players were invited to a seven o'clock dinner Tuesday evening at the Roy Jones' Shack and also to listen to the election returns. After stuffing on a regular Thanksgiving dinner—turkey, cranberries, and all the trimmings, we doubt if any of them shed tears which every way the shambles were

Stephenson Wins Over Taylor for Legislative Seat

Ralph O. Stephenson, Democratic candidate for the state legislature, won second place in the legislature race in the recent election. Wm. McAllister, Republican won first place. The race was close between Stephenson and Glen O. Taylor, who sought re-election. James Stevens, Democrat, was third and Mrs. Pomeroy, Independent, ran a poor fourth.

Other winners in the county were: Ralph Billings, (R), re-elected County Commissioner against Ralph Jennings, (D).

J. B. (Blin) Coleman (R), re-elected

County Assessor, over Hansen, (D).

George R. Carter (R), re-elected County Clerk, against Clarence Pankey (D).

Ralph Sweeney (D), elected county treasurer over A. C. Walker (R), incumbent.

Frank J. Newman, (R) elected District Attorney against George Coddling (D), incumbent.

Frank Perl nosed out his shadow, (his only competition) by a fair margin for County Coroner.

Disabled Veterans Stage Flower Sale

On Friday and Saturday of this week and also on Armistice Day volunteer workers will be on the streets of this city with a plea "Wear a forget-me-not". The campaign is the annual sale conducted by the Jackson County Chapter No. 8, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, of dainty boutonnières, the blue flower of remembrance, to raise funds to take care of emergency relief problems among the war-time disabled and to aid in the work of rehabilitation. The sale this year is under the charge of Frank Holbrook.

According to a statement made today by Harvey Cassman, commander of the local chapter, the National President of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the disabled veterans' organization, will be in Medford during the first two days of the sale to assist the local members.

Miss Ayers Honored At Birthday Surprise

Mrs. Harvey Davison and Miss Ruby Webster planned a surprise party honoring Miss Ayers' birthday anniversary Friday evening.

About thirty young people were present and the evening was spent playing games combined with a lot of Halloween fun.

Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Davison and Miss Ayers received a number of very beautiful gifts.

Big Bear Killed By Medford Men

Mr. H. C. Thomas of Trail and Mr. T. W. Miles of Medford with their bear hounds left Sunday morning for a bear hunt above Trail. The hounds located a big black bear and ran it for about an hour before it was treed and shot.

The bear weighed over 300 lbs. A crowd gathered about the car, with the big brain on the back, parked in front of The Safeway in Medford.

Master Harry Lee Thomas wasn't much impressed with the bear, his mother saying it was too much of an every day occasion. Baby Robert Duane Thomas looked on in big-eyed wonder.

Buck Kindly Waits While Hunter Gets License and Gun

A strange happening of the hunting season was when a certain party from Medford went fishing on Rogue River. Looking across the river he saw a big 4-point buck. He watched the beautiful animal for a few minutes, then he walked out of the river layed down his fishing pole, drove to Medford, purchased a hunting license, got his gun, and returned to Table Rock and got his deer.

Mrs. Blazing has been confined to her home with a bad cold.

Mervyn Gleason and Ray Watkins went out the last day of the hunting season and bagged two deer at Salt Lake.

This is apple week—Oct. 31 to Nov. 7. Governor Martin states that the Oregon apple crop was more than 5,000,000 bushels. Let's each eat an apple a day.

FOUND!

Ever since the recent debacle the editor of this paper has been on a still hunt to find the other Republican who cast his vote for Landon. And at last we dug him up. He is no less than Col. J. C. Woods, Civil War veteran, who says he cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln in Ontario, Ohio, and has been voting the Republican ticket ever since.

Mr. Woods, who is 89 years old, and his wife both walked to the polls last Tuesday to cast their ballots for the G.O.P.

Mrs. Jessie Case Dies. At Home of Sons

Jessie D. Case, former resident of Central Point, passed away at the home of her sons, George and Glen Davis, in Sallinas, Cal. The remains are to arrive in Medford Friday evening and funeral services will be held at the Perl funeral home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Boys Play Prank On Blind Woman; Leave Groceries

Mrs. Mary Stansby was very much surprised on going to the door Halloween night in response to a rap and finding no one there and on the porch were two boxes of groceries, oranges, and wheat for her chickens. She was very much surprised and at first puzzled until Bert Hedgpath appeared and told her it was a Halloween prank played by some of the Central Point boys.

Mrs. Stansby who is 81 years old stated that she was never so surprised in her life and wanted the boys to know how pleased she was and what a big help it was. She is nearly blind—has completely lost the sight in one eye and the other is falling fast.

Schools

Clarabelle Brood and Barbara Koehler were elected yell leaders for the year at a recent Student Council Meeting. Max Knadler was given the position of Athletic manager.

Millie McCord was elected to fill the vacancy of vice-president of the G.A.A. when Erma Thompson became president of the organization.

The Pointers tied the Jacksonville Miners, 6-6 in the football game Thursday afternoon.

Our team is working hard now on looking forward with much anticipation to the Armistice Day game with the Miners. This game will determine as to which is the better team.

According to the applause, the students of both grade and high school who attended the "Liquid Air" program Monday afternoon, enjoyed the presentation of the wonders of liquid air. Mr. Williams gave the experiments.

A Pep Club composed of all girls who wish to join, under the leadership of the yell leaders, Clarabelle Brood and Barbara Koehler has been organized. The purpose of this club is to support the team at the games.

Wanda Hood had Sunday dinner at the home of her sister in Medford.

Ellen Loftis visited friends in

Louise Elliott Dies At Medford Hospital

Mabel Louise Elliott, 25, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Elliott of Central Point for the last 10 years, passed away at a local hospital late Wednesday evening following a lingering illness.

She was born at Council, Idaho, August 7, 1911. During her residence at Central Point, she was a member of the Federated church. Besides her parents, she leaves one brother, Douglas Elliott of Central Point. Also a number of uncles and aunts, one of whom, Mrs. A. F. Lewis, resides at Phoenix.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Charles Lewis at the Conger chapel at 2 p. m. Saturday. Interment will be in the Central Point cemetery.

Many Entertainers for Armistice Day Ball

Lee Garlock of the Dance Committee for the Medford Post's Bigger and Better Armistice Day Celebration announces the entertainers who will furnish the Floor Show in connection with the Armistice Day Ball, as follows:

"Don and Joan", International Dance Team, they have appeared in the better known Nite Clubs up and down the Pacific Coast. Their sensational "Rhumba" Dance is fast and colorful. Their "Apache" Dance is packed with laughs and thrills.

"Ruth Doner" Hula, Oriental and "Torch" Dancer, Direct from the Bal Taberin and Royal Hawaiian Nite clubs in San Francisco.

"Neva Peoples" Colored Blues singer and dancer from Frank Sebastian's Cotton Club, Los Angeles.

"The Two HaCha Girls" who stole the show at the San Diego Exposition.

"Herman Whaley" Portland's famous colored singer and dancer.

"Bud Graces" formerly with Fanchon and Marco's hit shows, Will act as Master of Ceremonies.

"Dick-Duke-Dan" instrumental solos and musician for the entire floor show in connection with Herb Hamilton's Broadway Inn Orchestra direct from the Broadway Inn, Portland.

A very small admission charge has been arranged for unattached or extra ladies so that they may enjoy the floor show and dance even tho' "Papa" stays at home? ? ? But with the floor show listed above "Papa" WON'T STAY AT HOME.

Mr. Chomel is still showing a slight improvement. His many friends will be glad when he is able to return home.

Tuesday evening after lodge the Woodmen gathered at the Theodore Glass home and listened to election returns. About 23 members were present from Medford, Talent and Central Point. A supper of Chili-con con was served. The party broke up about one o'clock.

Mrs. Mae Richardson's first graders are starting a newspaper which they print on the blackboard every Wednesday morning. Watch for a copy of this paper in this paper after this week.

FOOTBALL TEAM TO PLAY MINERS ARMISTICE DAY

Central Point football team meets Jacksonville at Central Point Armistice Day at 10:00 in the morning. Although the Central Point team has been dogged all season by injuries it is hoped that most of the boys will be in shape to play.

The players are all pointing for this game and hope to do more than tie Jacksonville as was the case in the last meeting.

The Pointers will probably rely on a passing attack built around Blue O'Connor, who did outstanding work when the teams met before. Blue and his brother Pink will present Jacksonville with a twin threat. Alan Jewett, right halfback, who received a sprained ankle in practice two weeks ago, will probably be back in harness.

When interviewed about the game the players replied as follows:

George Merritt—"I play tackle and I hope to take my man out every time."

Alan Jewett—"I don't know whether I will be able to play, but, if I do, I will try to make my share of touchdowns."

Richard Jewett—"We tied Jacksonville once and our team is steadily improving. As quarterback I will do my best to call the correct play at the right time."

Simon Papp—"I will play to the best of my ability."

Roger Lawrence—"I will try to get every pass coming my way and will attempt to block my man out completely."

Bill Grimes—"I will do my best at end."

Blue O'Connor—"I will play tackle better than ever before and try to make all my passes accurate."

Pink O'Connor—"I play Fullback and I'll back up the line so that no one can get through."

Leonard Copinger—"I'll have to get mad first."

The "Miners" will depend on Mitchell, hard driving back, to gain their yardage.

Although this game will be played in the morning because of the large number of people who wish to attend the Medford-Ashland game in the afternoon, a large crowd is expected to be in attendance for the encounter.

Booster tickets, selling for 10c will be on sale. The Pep Club is expected to be out in full regalia to do their bit.

Miss Edith Sage Of Table Rock Marries Deputy

Miss Edith Marian Sage of Table Rock and Mr. Howard Gault of Medford, deputy sheriff, slipped quietly away Tuesday and were married in Medford by the Rev. E. S. Bartlam. Miss Sage's father and aunt accompanied her. The Gaults left immediately for San Francisco. Upon their return they will make their home on North Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall and children from California are visiting Mrs. Hall's grandmother Mrs. Little. The older children are attending school here.
