News of the Week

Mrs. R. A. Newland of Medford has received notice of her appointment as state organizer for the national ladies' auxiliary to the National Association of Letter Carriers. She received the appointment from the national president, Mrs. Minnie Cortley of Omaha, Neb. The success she has achieved in organization work, and wide acquaintance throughout the state, has won for her the highest honors within the gift of the state auxiliary. She is now a national officer, having charge of the national organization work in Oregon, and will immediately appoint six deputies in different parts of the state.

Henry Fletcher of the Medford Federal Savings & Loan association yesterday was elected president of the Oregon Savings & Loan league at its annual convention at the Multnomah hotel. The conclave opened Friday and adjourned yesterday afternoon. Other officers were chosen.

The biggest turkey crop on record—about 20,000,000 birds—is the forecast by the bureau of agricultural economics. This is a third larger than last year's production of about 15,000,000 turkeys, and compares with preceding record crops of nearly 19,000,000 birds in 1932 and 1933.

Miss Leona Powell and Arnold Law, both of Eagle Point, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist Parsonage on North Oakdale avenue. The ring ceremony was read by Rev. Oscar Gibson in the presence of relatives of the couple.

Southern Oregon officials have made public the announcement of the promotion of J. C. Carle, agent for the company here for the past eleven years, to the position of agent at Salem. W. E. Satchwell, who has been agent for the Southern Pacific system at Silverton, Oregon, succeeds Mr. Carle as agent in Medford. He will move his family to Medford as soon as suitable living accommodations can be secured. It was announced today. Mr. and Mrs. Satchwell have a son who is now a senior at Linfield college and Mr. Satchwell is a brother of the late Ray Satchwell, formerly associated with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

CORVALLIS, Nov. 2.—(SP)—Dr. A. B. Cordley, 72, dean emeritus of the school of agriculture at Oregon State college and internationally famed pioneer in scientific agriculture, died here Sunday. He had been on the O. S. C. staff for 41 years, joining the faculty in 1895 as professor of zoology and entomology. He was a graduate of Michigan State college.

SARDINE CREEK, Oct.—(SP)—The many friends of Lester Dusenberry, formerly of this place, are extending congratulations upon announcement of his marriage October 22 to Miss Margaret Lewis, of Table Rock.

The ceremony was performed in Grants Pass by Judge Grant Matthews. Bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry of Sams Valley.

Turkey production this season in Jackson county will total 60,000 birds—approximately 15,000 more than last year—according to County Agent Robert G. Fowler.

Largest flocks are reported in the Eagle Point, Applegate and Sams Valley districts.

The first pool sale of the valley turkey crop is scheduled for the middle of November.

Growers are now fattening the birds and placing them in condition for the Thanksgiving trade. Price of feed has risen, but the turkeys had fine forage all summer and fall.

No prices have yet been mentioned. The first buyers are expected to arrive early in November.

John Painter, 78 Called by Death

John Painter, 78 and a resident of Jackson county for nearly 50 years, passed away at his home in north-east Central Point at 5:30 Thursday afternoon.

He was born near Springfield, Mo., and from there he came to Oregon in 1888 and had resided here in Jackson county since that time. The last 25 years of his life were spent here where he was a member of the Christian church.

Besides his wife, Mary Painter, he leaves four sons and two daughters: Mrs. Chas. Sullivan, Medford; Mrs.
