LOCALS

The American joins the many friends of Mr. Theodore Glass in sympathizing with Mr. Glass in the death of his brother, Mr. Elbert Glass.

Have you seen the surprise new Willys car for the year at the Mead Motor Co. at 16 South Fir street in Medford? This is the only full-sized four-cylinder car on the market and uses "half the gas and with twice the smartness."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Powell, Harriette and Susie, of Medford, enjoyed Christmas dinner at the Clem Finley home.

Mrs. Ruth Clark and mother, Mrs. Webster, and Lonnie, motored to Roseburg Sunday. Mrs. Webster remained for a visit with her husband, who will be stationed there for a couple of months. Miss Ruby Webster, who had spent the past week with her father, returned home with Mrs. Clark.

Mr. John Viefra of Williams Creek is hauling a milk route from there to the Sonoma Valley Cheese factory here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Anderson and daughter Bonnie of Montesano, Washington, arrived here last week for a visit with Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hare. Mr. Anderson has returned home but Mrs. Anderson and Bonnie will make their home here this winter. Bonnie is attending school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roberts sang a duet, accompanied by guitar music played by Mr. Roberts, at the Christian church Sunday morning, which was very much enjoyed by all.

Mr. Edgar Johnson of the Peerless Market in Medford is shipping 30 tons of onions a week from the Central Point district. He is purchasing them from Oscar Blackford and C. P. Lofland.

Mr. Flaharty has received word that his sister was showing some improvement.

Harvey Flaharty arrived home Monday on a furlough from the Presidio, San Francisco, and will visit his parents and friends.

Among those leaving from Central Point for college after the Holidays were: Donald Richardson, Carol Furry, Roger Yost, Jack Smith and Jack Sanderson, now of Medford, but a former Central Point boy.

Mrs. Bessie Williams and Miss Inez Bozarth of Bay City visited at the Hare home this last week. Also Mr. and Mrs. George Wood and son Robert of Dallas were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Hare.

A Medford merchant said he hadn't got his feet on the ground since Christmas, but when he did he wanted an ad in The American.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marine, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Merriman of Medford spent New Year's day and evening at the T. A. Marine home.

Mr. Cliff Hilton, who left here recently, has work in a logging camp at Mossrock, near Kelson, and will send for his family soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Noel of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anders, Barbara and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Dressler, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Scott of Dunsmuir and Mr. Swartz enjoyed Christmas dinner at the E. E. Scott home.

Truman Brenner, one of many suffering with the flu.

Relief Corps Installs Officers for Year; Serve Turkey Dinner

On Saturday, January 2, Women's Relief Corps, No. 27, held installation of officers, preceeding which, a fine turkey dinner with all accompaniments was served to members of their families at noon.

Meeting opened at two o'clock by President Mrs. Sally Musty with Mrs. Lois Richardson as installing officer. New officers are: Mrs. Emma Gleason, President; Mrs. Iva Copinger, Senior Vice-President; Mrs. Rose Hermanson, Junior Vice-President; Mrs. Mary Richardson, Treasurer; Mrs. Emma Hilkey, Chaplain; Mrs. Eva Smith, Conductor; Mrs. Sally Musty, Guard; Mrs. Dora Jones, Secretary; Mrs. Mattie Smith, Press correspondent; Assistant Conductor, Mrs. Virginia Powell; Assistant Guard, Mrs. Jennie White; Color bearers, Mrs. Tillie Maple, No. 1, Mrs. Ida Henderson, No. 2, Mrs. Freda Lawrence, No. 3, and Mrs. Clara Farra, No. 4.

At the close of the official ceremonies the retiring president, Mrs. Sally Musty was the recipient of an attractive table lamp, as a gift from members in appreciation of her year of service. A gracious little speech voiced her thanks.

Mrs. Gleason bears the distinction of having served several terms as president of this corps. The different years are, 1918, 1919, 1925, 1927, 1928, 1931, 1932, 1933 and now beginning 1937 with the loyal support of all members.

Laura M. Crane, 73, Pioneer Woman, Dies

Laura Mee Crane, pioneer resident of Jackson county passed away at the home of her sister, Msry A. Mee in Central Point at 5:15 p. m. Sunday at the age of 73.

Laura Mee was born in the lower Applegate on what was known as the Sam Cook place Nov. 6, 1863 and resided there for 62 years. She came to Central Point 11 years ago. Mrs. Crane was a member of the Christian church and the Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge both of Central Point.

Besides her husband, W. A. Crane, she leaves two children, Knutzen and Jessie Kinsman of Applegate. Also one brother and two sisters, Mrs. J. H. White of Medford; Mary A. Mee, Central Point, and Warren Mee of Applegate. Also two grand children, Margaret and Allene Knutzen.

Funeral services were held at the Conger chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with Rev. D. E. Millard officiating. Interment was in the Central Point cemetery under the auspices of Mt. Pitt Rebekah Lodge, of which she deceased was a member.

Mrs. Crane leaves a host of friends in this city to mourn her passing. Her sister, Mary Mee, was long engaged in the drug business in Central Point. W. A. Crane, a retired printer, was at one time employed on this paper. The American desires to extend its sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Elbert L. Glass, 55 Dies at McCloud

Elbert L. Glass, 55, died at his home near McCloud, Oregon, Sunday morning. He was born in Arkansas, September 13, 1881. He had been suffering from a bad heart ailment and had been in poor health for the past months.

Mr. Glass was married to Millie H. Gordon, March 24, 1910 at Beagle, Oregon. Three children were born to the union. One daughter, Mabel, died in infancy. He is survived by his wife, and two daughters, Miss Erma L. Glass, and Miss Lois E. Glass of Trail, Ore., two brothers, Theodore A. Glass, Central Point, Ore., and Jesse Glass, Brownsboro, Ore., also three sisters, Mrs. Nannie Akew, Eagle Point, Ore., Mrs. Lillie DeArmond, Beagle, Ore., Mrs. Ollie Denn, Central Point.

The family had resided at McCloud for the past eight years, and he had been a resident of Jackson county for the past forty-eight years, following stock raising and farming. He was a man of fine character and leaves a host of friends.

Mr. Glass was a member of the upper Rogue Grange. Funeral services were held at the Perl Funeral home yesterday morning. Interment in Antioch cemetery.
