Navy Recruiting Party Coming Soon

Lieutenant John F. Goodwin, U. S. Navy, Officer in Charge of the Oregon Recruiting District with offices in the U. S. Court House at Portland, Oregon, advises that a Traveling Recruiting Party headed by Chief Machinist Mate M. P. Bryant, U. S. Navy, is enroute through the State of Oregon. This party has with them complete sound moving picture equipment and a large number of film of travel-gues covering practically every point in the world visited by ships of the U. S. Navy; scenes of our Navy at work and play, and a number of film showing enlisted men under instruction in many of the trade schools maintained by the Naval Establishment.

The party will be in Medford, August 22 and 23 and any young men interested in a wholesome and clean life, with good pay, and opportunity for travel and education, should plan to attend. Watch for announcements of the place.
