

IN THE WAKE OF FLOOD

This scene was enacted many times in refugee centers established by the Red Cross during the Ohio-Mississippi Valley flood. Inevitably floods bring the danger of disease as drinking sources become contaminated and large groups of people are thrown together. The medical-health service of the Red Cross serves thousands each year, and is maintained by membership funds contributed to the organization at the time of its annual Roll Call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving.

WRESTLING NEWS

Bobby Chick and Jimmy Lott, two great little grapplers, went 60 minutes to a draw last night in the main event of Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly program at the Medford armory, with neither able to grab a tumble.

In the middle event, Polish Palooka Joe Smolinski returned from the hinterland to punch and foul his way to a two-out-of-three fall win over popular Steve Strelch of Hollywood. Bic Jarbo avenged a previous defeat at the hands of Sailor Ole Olson in the opener to cop a two-straight fall squabble.

Lott and Chick staged one of the toughest matches seen here in several months. A former blocking back for the University of Alabama football team, Lott brought tremendous strength and scientific ability into play to earn his draw with the former light heavyweight champion. So evenly matched were the two wrestlers that neither, at any time, was close to a fall. Chick attempted several times to whirl Jimmy aloft for the deadly airplane spin, but always Lott was too agile and powerful to fall into the maneuver.

Bic Jarbo made short work of Ole Olson in the opener, clamping on a head scissors in the second stanza and winning in the third when Olson raving mad, sent several vicious kicks to Jarbo's groin. Referee Earl Yoakley awarded the fall and match to Jarbo amid a mighty demonstration by the large crowd.

Gault's Shoe Shop Has New Machine

At Gault's Shoe Shop across the street from the New Fluhrer's Bldg. in Medford, in the store with the white tile front you will find all the latest equipment for expert shoe repairing and dyeing. They have the only machine between Portland and San Francisco that will half-sole ladies shoes without nails or staples. You could not tell this re-soled shoe from the original.

Mr. and Mrs. Gault will be pleased to have you call at any time and see this new press and get acquainted.

1937 Seals Not Sold by Children

Mrs. Bertha L. Denton, public health school nurse of Ashland, will be the speaker for the regular meeting of the Jackson County Health association Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the county court house.

Final plans for the health seal sale drive, under Mrs. Robert C. Hart, county chairman, will be made at the meeting after the talk.

Differing from other years no school children will sell Christmas seals this year.

Funeral Service For D. C. Strauss Friday, 1:30 p. m.

Funeral service for Diedrick Charles Strauss will be held Friday at 1:30 p. m., at the Perl Funeral home with Rev. D. E. Millard officiating. Interment will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Strauss who was born in Nienberg, Germany, April 24, 1884, passed away at the family home in Sams Valley, Tuesday morning. He had been in failing health for some time but his sudden passing came as a severe shock to his family.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Elsie and Dorothy, and nine sons, William, Albert, Stanley, and Richard of Sams Valley, Harold and Walter of Richmond, Calif., Frank of Oakland, Calif., Louis and Gilbert of Storm Lake, Iowa. Also one grand-daughter, Doreen of Sams Valley, and five grandsons, Wayne and Dalton of Sams Valley, Joel, Donald and Gary who reside in California.

Deceased was left an orphan at a very tender age, and in his fourteenth year came alone to America, residing in Beauna Vista and Calhoun counties in Iowa, until he came with his family to Sams Valley 22 years ago, where he resided until his death.

A man of sterling qualities, he made many sincere friends in all walks of life. Very affectionate by nature, his passing seems doubly tragic to those left to mourn.

P.T.A. Dinner Is Very Successful

The Central Point P.T.A. dinner on Armistice Day went over in a big way. Preparations were made to serve at least one hundred and fifty persons. They began to arrive at 11:30 and by 1:45 everything but the decorations had been sold out. Co-operation was the keynote throughout and Mrs. C. L. Pierce, president, happy and jubilant over the results, wishes to thank each and everyone who contributed to this successful dinner.

U.S.A. flags with beautiful bronze.

TABLE ROCK NEWS

The monthly meeting of the Table Rock Community Club will be held Friday night Nov. 19. A Thanksgiving basket supper is the main feature of the evening. A short program will be given after supper.

The John Cota family, who has lived several months at the Harry Nealon place, left last week for Willow Springs to reside on their lately acquired property.

Due to the mild weather this fall families are still enjoying many green vegetables from their gardens, and many varieties of summer flowers in their dooryards. However, the mild weather has also left with us the housefly which housewives are still gingerly combatting.

Mrs. Frank Myres is suffering considerably from the effects of an injured ankle.

Stanley Lydiard of Medford was out this week visiting his mother at the farm, and sowing some of her pasture lands to bulbous blue grass.

Mrs. Ted DeFord of Silver Lake, who has been staying the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Dick Hunsley, underwent a major operation at the Sacred Heart hospital this week.

Harry Nealon is suffering much pain from an injured eye.

When the Cota and Haskett families left this district the school enrollment was cut down by four students.

R. E. Nealon was a member of a delegation of Jackson County Grangers who attended a public meeting in Portland Friday night where Mr. Ross, newly appointed administrator of the Bonneville Dam project spoke.

Sam Collins is again in a Salem hospital recuperating from a second operation on his eye. Her daughter Mrs. Ed Vincent left this week to join her sister Mrs. Dave Rees, who is also with their father. Mr. Collin's many friends are hoping for his speedy recovery.

Bill Bishop accompanied Steven Wilson to San Francisco last week where they marketed a truck load of hogs. The boys stopped on their return at Sacramento and visited over night with Steven's brother John.

Farmers are getting their quota of rain whether they are prepared or not, and some are having to use sleds to get their corn from the wet fields.

Friends and acquaintances of Dick Straus of Sams Valley were shocked to learn of his sudden death Tuesday morning.

The Haskitt family who lived for the past five years on the Hawky place are now located on a farm near Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Briggs leave Thursday for Los Angeles for a two week visit with relatives.

Miss Mabel Dodson, primary teacher, took advantage of the Armistice holiday and visited her sister Miss Virgie at Grants Pass, where the latter is recovering from an appendicitis operation.

Funeral Held For Charles Thompson

Funeral services were conducted from the Perl Funeral Home Wednesday at 3:30 p. m., for Charles Dawson Thompson, 74, beloved and highly respected resident of Medford who passed away at a local hospital early Monday after a short illness.

Mr. Thompson, who had lived in Medford for 17 years was born at Marquam, Ore., December 18, 1863.

Rev. Sherman Divine of the Presbyterian church officiated at the funeral services. Interment took place in the Siskiyou Memorial park Medford lodge No. 103 A. F. and A. M., had charge of the services at the cemetery. A number of friends from Central Point attended.
