GAINING OF KNOWLEDGE IS AN EASY TASK; WHAT YOU WISH TO KNOW DO NOT FEAR TO ASK.

MOTHER EVE'S PUDDING

1858

If you would have a good pudding, Observe what you're taught:— Take two pennys worth of eggs, When twelve for the groat; And of the same fruit that Eve Had once chosen, Well pared and well chopp'd, At least half-a-dozen; Six ounces of bread, (let your Maid eat the crust,) The crumbs must be grated as Small as the dust; Six ounces of currants, from The stones you must sort, Let them break out your teeth, And spoil all your sport; Five ounces of sugar won't Make it too sweet; Some salt and some nutmeg Will make it complete, Three hours let it boil, Without hurry or flutter, And then serve it up Without sugar or butter.

Here is something for you to think about when you PASS (and you notice I said pass) these numerous thumb-jerkers on the highway.

"They shot Mama and Papa last night." These were the tragic words that came from the lips of five years old Larry Kuntz of Montana, made an orphan by the fatal mistake of his parents in picking up hitch-hikers. There are always a bunch of boozers running loose that spoil a good thing, and makes it tough for the rest of the people that try to do the good turn. "Look before you leap."

Here is a tip to Mothers with missing children. If you can persuade the fire chief to ring the fire bell, I think her boy will show up. Johnny on the spot.

The Medford Street Bus Company reported better than 5000 people took advantage of the free rides on opening day.

Isn't it surprising what a whale-of-a-business company can do when things are FREE, Yough Sir.

Conjunctions join the words together, As men AND women, wind OR weather.

Mr. Ruhl in his editorial of Nov. 26 says that travelers from the East report that when President Roosevelt appears on the screen there are hoots, hisses and cat-calls. I wonder if that could be an indication that the President is headed down a blind alley.

Mark Taylor, Fred Schmidt, O. H. Bengtson and Harold Larsen played a round of golf on the rim of Crater Lake for the Universal News. Well, to make the picture complete, they should go down to the Equator and stage a snowball battle.

A MODEL TODEL If a boy put a hot-dog sandwich in the crotch of a tree and started shooting at it with a sling-shot, what would he have? Give up? A weinie beanle.
