After the severe frost Tuesday night and the awful pall of smudge smoke which hung over our valley all day yesterday, the welcome rain last night was glorious. Hurray for our wonderful weather man (Twice in a While).

FIRST GRADE NEWS

Wednesday, March 23, 1938
There are 28 children here. Four are out, this morning.

It rained all night. All the creeks are very high. There is water running in the fields.

Tomorrow is Miss Carlton's birthday. We will write her a letter.

We wish it would stop raining. We want to play outside.

Thursday, March 24, 1938
An angry bull ran after Vangle this morning. Vangle was too frightened to move.

Clyde Lees came along. He carried Vangle to safety. He saved his life.

BEFORE THE MIRROR

An habitual celebrant crept stealthily into his house one night but despite his caution, he fell and broke the empty bottle he was carrying in his hip pocket. He was sufficiently lucid to realize that first aid should be applied to the cuts which resulted, and accordingly backed up to a mirror and applied a generous dressing of adhesive tape.

As his wife showed no signs of having been awakened, he was no little astonished when she roused him next morning with "So you came home drunk again last night."

"Why, my dear, what in the world gave you that idea?"

"If you were sober, will you please explain how the adhesive tape got all over the mirror?"
