

Red Head Girl Team Rated The Greatest

The All-American Redheads are living up to all expectations according to reports being received by Mr. Jewett regarding the games they are playing in California. "The greatest team of girl basketball ever seen on a national tour", is the report from the places where these girls play.

The average men's team is clearly outclassed by the clever floor-work and basket shooting of this team. Against this aggregation of Olympic champions will be matched a group of recent high school stars. The O'Connors, Webster, Copinger, Lawrence, Grims and Jewett will perform for the Alumni.

I would like to know who in heck started the movement to have the use of salmon clusters or single eggs fishing outlawed for Rogue River. I do not see any harm in the use of such bait.

I have a sneaking hunch that it was some of those fly fishermen who started the movement. It must have annoyed them terribly to see some one else, using bait, hook some steelheads, while they fished all day casting with flies. Poor saps, they ought to know better. Because at the period of the salmon spawning, the steelheads will not rise to the fly, for they have plenty of food, eating the eggs during the salmon spawning period.

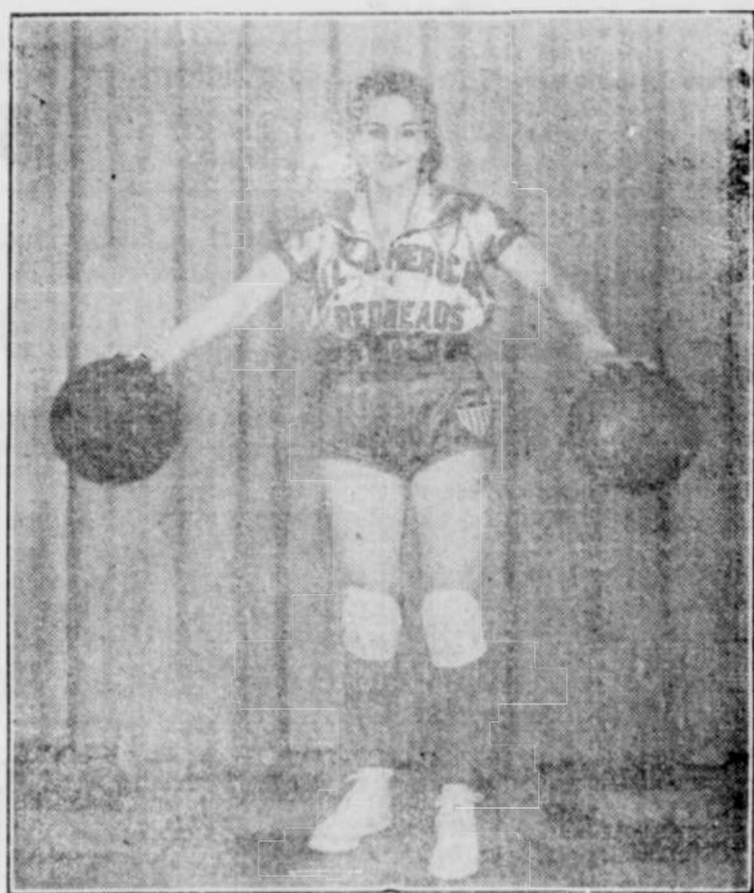

I have never caught a steelhead on fly during the time when the salmon are spawning. But if the fly fishermen would wait at least a little longer till the salmon spawning period is over, they could catch as many fish as they want to.

WRESTLING NEWS

Sheik Mar Allah, the Persian bad-boy who was definitely on the spot in his battle royal with five cleanies in the Medford armory last Monday night, received what was coming to him in the opening free-for-all, but he didn't fare so badly in the long run. As expected, the dark-skinned meanie was quickly and decisively eliminated in the battle royal, but he got some measure of satisfaction by coming back to whip Charley Carr in the first of the three following bouts.

In the other two matches determined by the battle royal, Sugy Hayamaka of Japan shaded Kem Kusek of Victoria, B. C., in two straight falls and Hugh Adams of Benton Harbor, Mich., beat Andy Tremaine of Phoenix, Ariz., two out of three falls.

These Players will be seen at the High School gym Monday Night, January 23, when the All-American Red Heads tangle with C. P. Alumni.

maintain the rest of the game. The final score was C. P. 23, Sams Valley 28.

This is the first game in a round robin series in which Y.G.A. teams from Bellview, Talent, Sams Valley and Central Point will compete to decide the county champions. Games are scheduled for the rest of January and all of February. Klamath Co. Y.G.A. teams have challenged Jackson Co. Y.G.A. teams and expect to come over some time in February.

The C. P. Y.G.A. team was formed only a short time ago but has won all its practice games including games with Westside and the National Guards. While these boys are not quite class A contenders and have no coach they are willing to meet any team that would be interested in arranging a game with them.

The next game in the Y.G.A. round robin will be between Central Point and Talent.
