

Ozark Mountain Hill Billies Play Feb. 13

The Ozark Mountain Hill Billies billed as "the craziest, goofiest attraction in basketball" will be on hand at the Central Point gym, Monday, February 13, to display their own particular brand of basketball.

With the Hill Billies will be Jumping Joe Satovich heralded as "The One Man Basketball Show". Satovich is called America's greatest ball handler, showman, and comedian. He does everything with a basketball except eat it.

During the warm up the Hill Billies come out dressed in Hill Billy fashion.

On top of being hilariously funny all the Hill Billies are fine ball players and give any team who play them a good tough game (sometimes too tough).

The Hill Billies will tangle with the Central Point Alumni, the same team that beat Olsen's All-American Red Heads.—Central Pointer

C. P. Noses Out Phoenix in Race

The mighty Pointers again fought their way to victory in an often-tied game with Phoenix at the local gym Tuesday night.

Phoenix, determined to put Central Point in the has-been list, put out their best brand of basketball. Taking an early lead, Phoenix kept trying to feint the Pointers out of position. Quick short passes proved effective and Phoenix seemed well on the way to victory.

Putting on a desperate rally, with Ronald Pinkham taking the lead, the Pointers began to click and the quarter ended 10-10.

Starting the second quarter the Pointers got a 14-10 lead but Phoenix, determined to win tied the game at 14-14 at the half.

Central Point got the largest advantage in the third quarter at the end of which they held a 23-18 advantage.

The Pointers, fighting to hold their lead, run the score to 25-23 to gain the victory.

The game was rough at times with Unruth being ejected for personal. Ronnie Pinkham led the Pointers with 10 points.

The lineups for the game were: Pointers (25) Phoenix (23) Holland F Vroman 3 R. Pinkham 10 F Madden 8 Boebe 8 C Way 5 Myers 2 G Unruth E. Pinkham 3 G Davis Sub.: Pointers—Williams; Phoenix—Parker 2.—Central Pointer.

Pointers Wallop Kerby Quintette

In a close game played on the Kerby High floor, Friday night, the Pointers defeated the Kerby Hoopsters by a very close margin.

Kerby was the first to score. Early in the first quarter they dropped in a long shot. Very shortly after the Pointers tied it up but Kerby was out to win if possible so they turned on the heat for a few minutes to lead by the score 5 to 2. The Pointers were as determined to win as their opponents were, so with a final score which ended at the half, the Pointers leading 12 to 8. For the rest of the game the Pointers led but they were always near the danger point. The final gun found the score 26 to 19 in favor of the Pointers.

Ronald Pinkham, Beebe and E. Pinkham gathered 7 points each to lead the Pointers while Hill and Brooks each made 7 points to lead the Kerby team.

In the preliminary the Kerby seconds trounced the Pointer pups 16 to 9.

The starting line was as follows: Pointers (26) Kerby (19) R. Pinkham 7 F Brooks 7 Myers 1 F Birdman 4 Boebe 7 C Hill 4 E. Pinkham 7 G Haberman Holland G Henroy Substitutes: Pointers—Blasing 2, Williams 2, Grimes; Kerby—Walton 1, Morrison.—Central Pointer

SPORT GAGS K. D. P.

Next Monday night there will be a real basketball show when the Ozark Mountain Hill Billies tangle with the C. P. Alumni at the high school gym. From all reports, they are the greatest, funniest and craziest ball team in the country and keep the fans in constant uproars with the antics they put on. There is a player named Jumping Joe (Izz) Satovich, rated by experts as the greatest player in the country who can do all sort of amazing tricks with the ball except "eat" it. Jumping Joe, with his constant chatter and tricky playing, has kept countless spectators in uproar, and (Izz) positively a pain in neck to the opponents.

Every one of you readers should go and enjoy a real show and at the same time enjoy the privilege of helping the high school athletic fund increase, because last fall during the football season there was not a very good attendance at the games to really help the school. So to make it up, please show your appreciation by coming out enmasse to see the game where you will really enjoy the greatest, funniest ball team in the country in action.

I believe that there are tougher teams in the class B league II than there are in the Division I. For the third time in as many trials I saw a real tough game last Tuesday night when Phoenix fought Central Point almost to a standstill only to lose 25 to 23 in one of the finest games I have ever seen. Each team was putting up such a fine brand of defense that any class A team would have had a hard time to break through. And they both put on a fine display of offense when the pinch came. But what got me really enthralled was the way our boys really clicked in their offense work. For the first time this season I saw the team put on dribbling and passing work that was really a beauty to watch, which time after time got Phoenix befuddled.

If Coach Hulbert could keep up that sort of work, (which he has so carefully built up) I feel sure that they are going to win the county championship for the third time in a row and very possibly make an interesting battle at the tournament in Ashland.

It really got me flabbergasted to see that Medford has defeated Grants Pass twice in a row last week. Medford will play Grants Pass tomorrow night in Grants Pass. Medford will not have any trouble with Grants Pass if they keep up the line work of offense. I want to see Medford win the right to go to the state tournament for without the least doubt on my part, Medford is really the classiest of all the teams in southern Oregon. And if Coach Achson can prevent the boys from getting stale, Medford is going to make a very fine showing at the state tournament too.

In the last few weeks I have written several communications to the editor regarding a suitable club building for the boys and girls. Let me now tell you more about this. The other day I find out that it will cost considerable to fix up the old YMCA building because the Masons have done a lot of remodeling since they bought the building. So I am not so interested in that building anymore.

There is one possibility that really can be done. That is if all organizations of all kinds will join together in one big movement to figure out ways and means to start the movement. It can be done. There are so many fine organizations which are a credit to our city which can do so much to help in the welfare work for the boys and girls, which, if they will forget whatever prejudices they have and really join in one solid move.

Basketball News

GRADE SCHOOL SCORES AGAIN The Central Point Grade school teams won their basketball games with Howard school last night with scores of 22 to 6 for the first string and 11 to 2 for the second team. The grade school Pointers have played sixteen games, losing but one to Jacksonville.

Their next tilt will be on Thursday with the Medford Junior High quint. The lineup for Tuesday's game was as follows: Pointers 22 Howard 6 Frohriech 6 F Brugger Pierce 8 F Stocks Booth 8 C Bissonette 4 C J. D. Colly G Ricks 2 R. Colly G Ebbe Sub.: Pointers—Daley; Howard—Johnson and Croucher.

CENTRAL POINT TOWNIES WIN LEAGUE CONTEST In a pair of AAU league basketball games played at Central Point last Monday night, Lamport's Red Raiders nosed out the Salvation Army Red Dots, 33 to 31, in an overtime period, and Central Point Townies took the measure of Medford's Owl club, 41 to 23. Webster of the Townies was high with 12 points and Arba Ager of the Owls came next with 7.

JUMPING JOE "IZZ" SATOVICH

Minneapolis Journal, Brainerd Dispatch and Crookston Times as being the ONE MAN BASKETBALL SHOW. The Minneapolis papers writes him up as follows: "Satovich had more colors than the whole team of touring professionals; he twisted his arm into knots, passing the ball hopping and skipping about the court like a jumping jack, and Jumping Joe mixing vocal efforts with his physical drive, proved he could be a pretty good basketball player as well as a 'funny' one." Even the world's fastest human, Jesse Owens, was forced to share the evening's spotlight with Jumping Joe.

Jumping Joe (Izz) a pain in the neck for the opposing team. He will be seen on the C. P. floor when the Ozark Hill Billies tangle with C. P. Alumni on February 13.
