AND WHAT OF THE DEPENDENT?

(From the N. Y. World-Telegram) Perhaps few people who contribute to social welfare causes have hitherto heard of the Social Service Employees Union, Local 19, affiliate of the C. I. O.

Such ignorance may be somewhat startling dissipated by the announced demands of this union for a month's vacation in summer plus one week in winter for all member-employees; six months' sabbatical leave with half pay after six years' service; time off with expenses for conference attendance, also maternity leave up to six months, with half pay after three years' service.

To many humble toilers in other fields who gladly give what they can to charity the above will seem a dream schedule. Nor are they likely to ignore the overhead costs involved—particularly in welfare services they have been taught to believe are conducted with a minimum of administrative expense.

As for employers in plain business or industry, some of them might well be staggered by comparisons with such widely different working conditions, vacations, etc., in social organizations—for which which their money aid is frequently solicited. Suppose they dry up.

These are bewildering days. To find even social welfare workers organized and militantly pressing union demands is only a little stranger than other developments.

But it may turn out that unionized welfare workers can become too rash to be compatible with the accustomed inflow of welfare contributions.

Shall we then have strikes to compel charity?

THE "ISM" PREACHERS

"There are persons who constantly clamor. They complain of oppression, speculation and pernicious influence of accumulated wealth. They cry out loudly against all banks and corporations and all means by which small capitalists become united in order to produce important and beneficial results. They carry on mad hostility against all established institutions. They would choke the fountain of industry and dry all streams. In a country where property is more evenly divided than anywhere else, they read the air shouting agrarian doctrines. In a country where wages of labor are high beyond parallel, they would teach the laborer he is but an oppressed slave. What can such men want? What do they mean? They want nothing but to enjoy the fruits of another man's labor."

This statement was made about one hundred years ago in the United

ONE WAY OF LOOKING AT IT

State Senate by one of the greatest American statesmen—Daniel Webster.

Every tradition and institution in America is periodically under attack. The man who invests the capital that keeps business running is accused of monstrous iniquities. Socialism, communism, fascism, nazism—all of these, judging by the critics of our social order, are better than democracy.

The fact that the American system has given the highest standard of living on earth is disregarded. The fact that the American workmen have luxuries, enjoyed only by the well-to-do or official class abroad, is covered up. Fortunately, the American people, secure in the knowledge of their heritage, don't seem to be fooled very easily by these detractors and their assorted "isms."

News--O--Grams

By Archie Parker

"IT IS EVIDENT THAT A PERSON CAN DIE BUT ONCE, AND THE PERIOD OF LIFE IS LIMITED, AND THAT IT IS FAR BETTER THAT HE DIE A FEW DAYS EARLIER FOR CHRISTIANITY, JUSTICE AND LIBERTY, THAN THAT HE LIVE A LITTLE LONGER IN COWARDICE AND DEGENERACY."—Senator Pittman.

If there ever was a time when we should take the above quotation seriously it is RIGHT NOW. I want to dedicate the WORDS OF WISDOM of Hon. Senator Pittman to our local Administration, the worthy Ladies' Civic Club and the respectable citizens of our community.

Any community can be likened unto a barrel of delicious apples—beautiful to behold, and the ascending aroma is wonderfully pleasing to the senses—BUT, just let a few of the apples start decaying and what happens? The gratifying aroma has changed to an acid sting that warns of dangerous decay. The barrel of delicious apples have lost its attraction—doomed to destruction unless something is done and done at once. The rotten apples must be separated from the good. For a few rotten apples can soon contaminate and ruin the whole barrel of apples.

TO THE COUNTY HUMANE SOCIETY

Please accept my apology for my article a short time ago in this column regarding the reward you were trying to raise to apprehend dog poisoners. I did not fully understand the situation. (Why don't people tell me these things?)

The dog poisoning of only endangers the lives of valuable dogs, but the lives of children as well. And I am fully in accord with you. But I still maintain that there should be a reward for hit-and-run drivers.

It looks like Central Point has really succeeded in maneuvering itself into a position where it is really going to do something about bicycle riding in town. But I notice that the ordinance call for the bicyclist to make signals on turning the same as motorist ARE SUPPOSED TO DO. That's fine, but lets give the kids a break and see that people driving cars makes the signals also—watch and see how many people driving cars observe this state law. If it is good for the bicyclist it is good for the motorists.

But—no doubt—the grumbling populace will grab their respective representative by the hand, when he returns, and tell him what a good job he had done for the under-dog, then cuss him behind his back. If WE—THE PEOPLE would greet our paid law-makers with a good stiff poke on the button when they let us down, in favor of big-money, we would make it more impressive that we had a vote and a voice in our state legislation.
