

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schell enjoyed a beautiful drive on Memorial Day. First they visited at the lovely country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson at Table Rock, later returning by way of the Old Highway and the Old Stage Road, stopping for enjoyable visits with friends along the way. Mr. Stone reports that the Richardsons have one of the neatest little farms of about 65 acres that it has ever been his lot to see. Everything clean and well cared for and very fertile ground. They have a very attractive home, with fireplace built by a man over 80 years old, who got the sandstone from Sama Valley and built the fireplace to fit the room. He did a very artistic job, both in design and material used.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kendall and daughter Helen; Mrs. Bodin and son Rob Hoaglund spent Tuesday at Crescent City.

Mervyn Gleason and Bob Hoaglund left Wednesday morning for Marshfield on a business trip. They expect to return home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fish left this morning for California. Mrs. Fish was the former Arlene Estes and is a teacher in the grammar school.

Men's and Boys' Swimming suits, 50c, 75c, 98c. Faber's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pickhard from Butte Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Glass made a trip Tuesday over the scenic drive over Mt. Ashland.

Mrs. R. C. Brophy and daughter Roberta of Burns, Ore., are spending a few weeks at the Parker home.

Mrs. Margaret Hubbard had the misfortune to fall and badly bruise her shoulder last week. It is very painful but luckily no bones were broken.

City Treasurer Jones, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Rossi left last week for Fairfield, Calif., to see a brand-new great grandson, Allen Rossi, son of Dr. Felix Rossi. They also visited their son at Weed. Mr. Rossi said that harvesting was just starting and that all crops in the Basin looked good.

Child's Sun Suits 25c. Faber's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fleischer and daughter, Barbara, left yesterday by motor for Sheridan, Oregon, where they will attend the wedding of Mrs. Fleischer's niece. From Sheridan they will go to Seattle to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cox, Dolores and Jackie left Saturday morning for Klamath Falls, where they visited Mrs. Cox's sister, Bessie Hale and family, also to the cemetery there to care for the graves of departed loved ones, continuing on to Lakeview for the same service. They returned home Sunday evening.

We are sorry that in some way the name of Lila Holtz was left out of the list at the recital given by Mrs. Lois Young at the Christian church in Medford last week. Lila is a beginner and this was her first appearance. Her friends were very much pleased with her selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fry left on Saturday by air for San Francisco where they plan to spend a few days seeing the Fair. They were accompanied by Mrs. Fry's sister, Miss Bundy of Grants Pass.

Mr. James Harrison left Friday afternoon for Portland, where he will spend a few days before going to his home in Marshfield.

Hal Jewett went fishing at Highbanks on Rogue River Tuesday and caught an 8-pound steelhead. He reports the fish really put up a battle.

Miss Ross Jones attended a very pleasant picnic supper in Roxy Ann Park Tuesday. It was a meeting of the 'Be Jolly' club and was well attended.

Mr. Hatfield received a letter from Mrs. Saunderson saying she might be able to return the last of this month. Her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Roberts, is still not at all well—the baby is fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Clark of Tacoma visited with Mr. L. Hatfield this week. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were former residents of Central Point and owned the Clement ranch. They now live on a little island on the edge of Tacoma.

Bert Hedgpeth was passing out cigars today on account of having forsaken the ranks of the bachelors. Mr. Hedgpeth and Mrs. Minnie Buckles were married early this week in California. He will resume his duties as city marshal next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Smith and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Young motored to Cottage Grove Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Anna Dean, who had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Clara Farra, left Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Middleton for Grants Pass where she spent the night with another aunt, Mrs. Lydia Dean. On Wednesday morning she continued her journey with Mr. and Mrs. Middleton to Crescent City. From there she returned to her home in Oakland, where she works in the Greyhound office.

Janice Clark, who graduated from the grammar school this spring is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dean Mayfield in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Ray Scott and sister visited at the Billy Abbott home recently. Mrs. Scott's daughter, Arlene, who has been staying at the Abbott home and attending school, returned home to Campbell with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith and daughter Melody left Friday for Salem, where they visited Mr. Smith's father and brother. They returned home Tuesday. They report lovely weather in Salem, no rain on Decoration Day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Woods, who have been on the sick list are slightly better. Mrs. Musty is caring for them during the night and Mrs. Hallo Hesselgrava during the day. They expect their daughter from Dunsmuir today.

Faber shipped a carload of sugar pine shakes to Montague this week.

Mr. Alexander reports that about a month ago when the farmers came to town they were all glum and blue with no prospects for crops. Now when they come in they are all smiles and prophesy bumper crops. George Brown in from the Applegate reported the best crop of alfalfa he ever had.

Skipper Smith listening with rapt attention to his lady and when she finished speaking, saying, "Huh? what did you say?"

A GOOD HOUSEKEEPER SPEAKS

I was so busy to the day's far end. I did not write that letter to my friend
In her great need. I had no time at all
To return a neighbor's recent friendly call.
The little child who passed my door went by
Without a smiling answer to her shy
Advancement, and the beggar at my door
Went on, still carrying the burden that he bore.
Even my nearest and my dearest knew
I had no time to spare the long hours through.
And now tonight my house is clean and bright.
The window sills are scrubbed, my boards are white,
The beds are smooth, each dish, neat on its shelf.
I'm pleased with it . . . but not pleased with myself!
Dear God, if a tomorrow may be mine,
Help me, instead, to make my spirit shine.
One should not be too spent at close of day
To read an old loved book, to kneel and pray . . .
—Grace Noll Crowell

So what?—

THE REWARD of one duty is the power to fulfill another—George Eliot.

You should have a peek at the new uniforms for Faber's softball team—we did and they are beauties.

Mrs. Cassman and Mrs. Hodapp out in the rain Monday afternoon selling tickets for the D. A. V. dance—their umbrellas in the car.

Mrs. Gregg telling her husband to put on his complete rain suit, jacket, pants, boots and hat, with a big sign on the back saying "hay for sale." It was Tuesday and his hay all down.

Mrs. Musty at the W.R.C. hall calling for an axe.

Local citizens tearing up yards and yards of grass in an attempt to extinguish the fire that blazed merrily under the hood of a midget racer, before the fire extinguished itself.

Several young people who were thought to be strangers in the community turned out to be eighth graders all washed and combed for the graduation ceremonies at Ashland.

Thought that continues to recur: Why will women with faces like that buy hats like that?

The Little Minister laying big plans for a coming Summer encampment.

And fond mamas and papas misty eyed and proud of their little cherubs who have graduated and now know more than they will ten years hence.

Hal Jewett, he of the mischievous smile and merry eyes, wooing trouble and escaping it, all on account of being such a swell little fellow after all.

Shirley Kincaid rising to lend her lovely voice to that of the tenors only to discover that her voice had failed her and she didn't have any to lend.

Orville Castor is of the opinion that anyone desiring to be a lumberjack should certainly learn to swim first. Orville gathered some first hand information on the perils of not knowing how at the mill the other day.

GRANGE NOTES

Albert Thompson was voted a 4-H summer school scholarship at Corvallis at the last Grange meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bursel are to be alternate delegates to State Grange in June.

Wm. Foley explained the National Grange Safety Contest and it was decided that Central Point Grange would enter the contest.

The Home Economics Club met with Miss Mary Maury on Wednesday, May 24th. A very interesting program on rug making was given by Miss Claire Hanley.

Pomona Grange was held in the Central Point Grange hall on Saturday evening, May 27th. Several candidates took the fifth degree.

Next meeting of the Central Point Grange will be held at 8:30 p.m. instead of 8 p.m., on Friday, June 2. There will be a memorial program.

Plaque Honors Miss Mildred Carlton

A plaque, honoring the memory of Miss Mildred Carlton, president for many years of the Jackson County Health association, was placed last week on the walls of the Alex Sparrow Memorial clinic in the county courthouse by the association. The plaque, designated and completed by Miss Helen Herbert, Medford artist, carries an inspiring figure of a little girl, with a simple inscription honoring one of the greatest benefactors to Jackson county children. It hangs in the children's room of the clinic and was viewed by health workers from all sections of the county Thursday, when they came to Medford for the annual meeting of the association. Also viewed by members was the new memorial scroll, carrying the names of all persons whose friends and families have chosen to perpetuate their memories through a contribution to the clinic. The long list of new names has been lettered on the scroll by Major Archie Livingston.

Calif.-Oregonians Hold Spring Picnic

California-Oregonians held their spring picnic in Lithia park, Ashland, Sunday.

After a bountiful lunch, Vice-president Harry Ellis conducted a short business session. It was decided to hold the fall picnic at Rogue-Dale on Crater Lake highway, Sunday, September 3. All families were requested to bring along watermelons for the annual watermelon feed.

The following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: Harry Ellis, president; Del Millard, vice-president and program chairman; Maude B. Grant, secretary-treasurer.

The president appointed the following representatives in the several centers of the valley to advertise the picnic in their various communities: G. A. Lawson, Eagle Point; Mrs. Homer Brown, Central Point; Owen Barnhill, Ashland; Mrs. Maud Parsons, Rogue River and Grants Pass; Hanford Pyle, Gold Hill, and Harry Ellis, Medford.

The following group of Girl Scouts of Troop 12 are attending the Girl Scout day camp on Bear Creek today: Argyle and Mildred Williams, Anna Booth, Marylene Gebhard, Zoe Hill, Lavonne Cassman, Mary and Maxine Hodapp, Patty Langston and Jerry Sullivan. Mrs. Cassman and Mrs. Arnold Bohnert took cars. This camp is held every Thursday and Friday. Any girl, scout or not, may attend. See Mrs. Cassman for registration blanks. All girls must register the first time they attend. Volunteer drivers please contact Mrs. Cassman.
