THREE GATES

If you are tempted to reveal A tale to you some one has told About another, make it pass, Before you speak, three gates of gold, These narrow gates: First, "Is it true?"
Then, "Is it needful?" And the next Is last and narrowest, "Is it kind?"
And if to reach your lips at last It passes through these gateways three,
Then you may tell the tale, nor fear
What the result of speech may be.
—Arabian.

The events in this town during the past month or two bring home to our minds the truth of the above little verse. More unnecessary heartaches; more sorrow and more pain has come to innocent people than was anywhere justified by the facts by the untruthful, unneeded and unkind stories which have passed from mouth to mouth recently.
It is true a once loved and respected business man of our town has fallen by the wayside. A jury of his peers has found him guilty of practices unworthy of true manhood.
But in spite of all that, shall half a lifetime of spotless reputation; of civic endeavor; of charity for all, count as nothing?

But in all this unpleasantness there is a lesson we hope will be taken to heart by every man and boy, every woman and girl in our community. As that beloved poet of the home, Guest, so truthfully said: You ought to be fine for the sake of the folks

Who think you are fine.
If others have faith in you doubly you're bound To stick to the line.
It's not only on you that dishonor descends;

You can't hurt yourself without hurting your friends.

You ought to be true for the sake

Who believe you are true.
You should never stoop to a deed that your friends

Think you wouldn't do.
If you're false to yourself, be the blemish but small.

You have injured your friends; you've been false to them all.

For friendship, my boy, is a bond between men

That is founded on truth; It believes in the best in the ones that it loves.

Whether old man or youth;
And the stern rule it lays down for me and for you

Is to be what our friends think we are, through and through.

And to the young men who were involved in the recent unpleasantness we want to say that the facts disclosed in the court room were far from creditable to them all.

While youth may be pleaded as an excuse for many things, these boys were surely old enough to know better. By their careless indulgence and thoughtless yielding to temptation they have had a hand in bringing sorrow into innocent lives. They have injured people who have ever been good to them. Let us hope the lesson will be well learned and they will never again be guilty of such disgrace.

And to the man who is soon to begin the payment for his crime we want to say that we hope the time will soon come when you can again return to your loved one—a man who has learned well his lesson; who has paid the price and who is once more prepared to face the world in honor.

Chas. E. Walker, wife and grandchildren of Seattle, where he is operating a candy factory specializing in high grade chocolates, made a stop in Central Point yesterday to inquire for former acquaintances and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Walker were newly-weds and lived near the water tank 29 years ago. Mr. Walker was a member of the choir at the Church of Christ, where Rev. Sicka-foos was pastor. The Walkers were enroute to the Exposition.

Mrs. Robert Moore and daughter Maxine have left to join Mrs.
Moore's husband in Klamath Falls.

COUNCIL SELLS ATHLETIC FIELD TO SCHOOL DIST.

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council Monday night the matter of the closing of the portion of South Fifth street extending south from Cedar street and also an alley extending from this portion of Fifth street to Fourth street, was taken up. A public hearing had been called on this matter for this meeting, but no one appeared. The council therefore proceeded to pass an ordinance vacating this street and alley.

The council then took up the matter of selling the vacant land lying east of the high school to the school district for an athletic field. Some time ago Mayor Powell had taken this matter up with the school board and an agreement as to price and terms had been reached. The council voted unanimously to authorize the mayor and recorder to draw up a deed of the property and present the same to the school board. The school board had agreed to pay the city the nominal price of $25.00 for the land, together with all legal costs connected with the transfer, a total of $36.50.

Tuesday evening Mayor Powell delivered the completed deed to the school board at its regular meeting and received a warrant for full payment as agreed. Thus is brought to a pleasant close a matter which has been hanging fire for several years. The Central Point school now has a tract of land of sufficient size for a fine athletic field. The land can easily be drained and leveled and a fence erected if desired. Also a grandstand. The land is of almost no value to the city as the soil is very poor, with hard-pan near the surface, making it almost unsuitable for residential purposes.

The council also authorized the purchase from the city of Medford of whatever 6-inch cast iron pipe may be necessary to complete the repair of the water main on Fourth street, which has been found to be in bad condition.

There will be no attraction costing more than a penny. Posters are out on the various telephone poles and also on Pearl's blacksmith shop telling more about this wonderful untold show.

othy, Anna, Ruth, Beverly, Pat, Grace prised at the local talent and we

New Eye Specialist Moves to Medford

A newcomer to Medford professional circles is Dr. Frank A. Free-burger, optometric eye specialist, of Portland, who arrived recently with his wife and little daughter Patricia to make their home there. Dr. Free-burger is a graduate of Northern Pacific College of Optometry and has been in practice in Portland for 11 years. He was also instructor in the college at one time. Dr. Free-burger has retained his office in Portland which he has left in charge of a competent optometrist. His office is at 213 E. Main, Medford, where he has the most fully equipped office in southern Oregon. Dr. Freeburger will not only be an addition to the professional circle but he and his wife will also be active in social and civic affairs.

Young Couple Buy Store Here Once Owned by Jones

The grocery store next door to the postoffice, formerly owned and operated by Roy F. Jones, was this week purchased by William Ask-with and wife of Prospect, who took possession Monday morning.

Mr. Askwith has been manager of the Grieves' store and resort at Prospect and his wife was deputy postmaster at that place. Mrs. Askwith is well known here as the former Miss Geraldine Tex, daughter of our genial city recorder, "Jerry", as she is known to her many friends, was born and raised in Central Point, where she graduated from high school several years ago and where she was active in church and social circles.

The new firm, "Bill and Jerry", as they are familiarly known, state that they intend to remodel the store as soon as possible. Both are now very busy going back and forth between here and Prospect, closing up their affairs there, besides keeping the local store open daily. Mrs.
Peggy Palmer, who has been assisting in the store for several weeks, will remain for the present. The new store will be called the Central Point Market.

Mr. Askwith has had a number of years' experience in the grocery business before coming here and states that he hopes to build up a good business here. Both he and his wife have many friends in this city who will welcome them to our business circle. Their slogan will be, "prompt, courteous service, good merchandise at fair prices."

The sale was made through Guy Tex, who assisted in closing the deal, which consisted of purchase of the stock on hand and the leasing of the building and fixtures. Mr. Tex states that he will have no personal connection with the new firm, merely assisting them in the purchase of the business. Mr. and Mrs. Askwith will stay at the Tex home until they can find a house to suit them. They plan to buy a home here as soon as possible and to become permanent residents.

The American joins their many friends in extending a welcome to the new firm and hopes for their success here.

Civic Club to Sponsor League For Young Boys

At their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon the Civic Club voted to sponsor a softball league for boys from 8 to 14 years of age. The club will furnish balls, bats and other equipment provided such a league can be formed. It is believed that such a league will be of much benefit for the smaller boys of this city as it will provide clean, innocent sport to occupy their time during vacation.

The plan is to organize at least four teams (or more if there are enough boys turn out) and arrange a schedule of games between the different teams during the summer.
It is hoped that prizes can be offered by the merchants or others interested for the winning teams at the end of the season.

A meeting of all boys from 8 to 14 has been called at the school grounds for Monday evening at 5:00 o'clock, at which time tryouts for the teams will be given. Parents of boys of proper age who wish to see their boys interested in clean sports are urged to have them turn out at that time. All playing will be under proper supervision so that there will be no danger of any of the boys getting hurt.

LOCALS

ing Summer Bible School in Medford.

major operation in a Portland hospital last week. Mr. Cornutt returned to Portland Sunday to be with her.

Mr. and Mrs. William Askwith, who recently purchased the Jones grocery, will make their home with Mrs. Askwith's parents, City Rec-order and Mrs. Guy Tex for a short time.

New comers in Central Point are into the Bowles place, C. J. Jones the house by the park known as the tune while working with an ax to cut his foot badly, cutting off some of the bone on his instep and necessitating the taking of 15 stitches. He was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital Saturday and returned home Monday. He suffered intensely at first but is in less pain now.

Mrs. Ida Berry of Ashland has purchased the Jake Myers place.

the Peart building, while here she made many friends in the community.

W.R.C. Celebrates Five Birthdays

Wm. H. Harrison Woman's Relief Corps met Saturday, June 3, in all-day session with good attendance. Birthdays for the second quarter were observed at noon with a delicious covered dish luncheon.
Table decorations were of roses, a large and beautifully decorated birthday cake gracing the center of the table. It was prepared by Mrs.
Mary Gonderman. Those having birthdays during this quarter were Mesdames Powell, Kilburn, Farra, Merritt and Richardson.

Guests from the Gold Hill group who responded to the invitation to meet with us were, President, Mrs.
Willie McLean, Mrs. Madge Dor-man and Mrs. Millie Walker.

Mayor A. E. Powell arrived on the scene at eleven o'clock and entertained the assemblage with a group of songs, accompanied on the organ by himself. This courtesy was greatly appreciated.

The business session opened at 2 o'clock. Plans are developing for holding a bazaar some time later in the season.

The program of entertainment was on the theme of "Our Flag," with reading by Mesdames Merritt, Minnick and Lawrence.

Mrs. Freda Lawrence gave a report on the state convention recently held in Portland. Mrs. Eva Lough of Medford was elected press correspondent and Mrs. Lawrence chairman of the executive board. The remaining time was given to pleasing remarks from our guests and a little contest put on by Patriotic Instructor Mrs. Smith, in which the winner was Mrs. Gleason.

During the afternoon attention was called to the flags belonging to the corps. They only have 13 stars and one has the stars in a circle.
They have one nice flag presented to them by the widow of "Uncle Billy" Hoagland, a Civil War veteran, formerly of this city.

—Mrs. Mattie Smith.

Old Officers to Hold for Term

The Civic club held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon. Election of officers was scheduled, but by a unanimous vote the old officers were re-elected with the exception of treasurer, there being a vacancy in that office. Mrs. George Fox was chosen for this office.

The club has taken up a new project for the coming summer and is sponsoring a softball league for the younger boys. This is just for the purpose of providing a good time for the younger group during the summer. The club would appreciate it if the mothers of this group would meet with them occasionally and give their ideas on the club's projects.

It was suggested by a business man of the city that a croquet set be purchased by the club. He believed that the lots by the drinking fountain by the fire hall might be obtained and thought that a number of the youths of the city would help clean them up. Anyone wishing to help with this undertaking may leave word at The American office.
This game would be open to anyone, young or old who wished to play.

It was voted to serve a fish dinner to the Sportsmen's club at any time set by that club.

After the business meeting refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and punch were served by Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Bither which were much enjoyed.

To Parents

Please have your boys, ranging from 8 to 14 years of age, report to the high school baseball field next Monday night at 5:00 o'clock for the tryout for the softball teams for the purpose of starting a softball league which will be sponsored by the Civic Club.

All the kids will be graded carefully into teams in order to make all teams evenly matched so as to assure good games all summer.

If you want to see your boys play for the sake of their health and happiness, you can help a great deal by urging them to try out for the league teams.

FABER TEAM WINS FIRST GAME IN CITY LEAGUE

Playing the first league game of the season Faber's powerful team overwhelmed the Elks of Medford to the tune of 9 to 4. There never was any doubt from start to finish as to the superior work of Faber's team. Every man on the team played a perfect game and there were only two errors committed by Faber's team which were responsible for two runs out of the four that the Elks scored. Big Bill Landers pitched a cool and fine game and was never in danger at all. Young Wilbur Johnstone took the place of Bill Landers in the fifth and did a very good job of retiring the side. Babb, short-fielder, made the most sensational catch of the game when he made a running catch of the ball only to fumble it and then recover just in time before the ball touched the ground. Donald Faber, coach at Albany College, was on the field and helped with advice and encouragement.

Tomorrow night Faber's team will tangle with Older Men at Medford high school diamond. The game will be the second game of the evening.

Stone Appointed To Fill Vacancy On City Council

E. P. Stone was appointed by Mayor Powell as councilman to fill the vacancy caused by the removal from the city of Marshall S. Simmonds. The appointment was unanimously endorsed by the council and Mr. Stone was sworn in at the regular meeting Monday evening.

On account of this change in the personnel of the council, the mayor announced a re-arrangement of committee assignments. The following is the new committee assignments:

ney, Stone.
