Sport Gags

By K. D. P.

The more I think and study the work of the Rogue River Sportsmen's Club, the more convinced I am that the Central Point club should really be affiliated with them. Have not you heard of the fine work they have done ever since they first started work of organizing a club for the sportsmen of the valley? They have started a five-year plan to improve the fishing of the Rogue which I, as a fisherman, heartily endorse. And it will cost the club money to carry on their plan and they could work on a bigger scale if all the clubs of Jackson county had joined that club or be affiliated with them.

Let it be understood by the members of Central Point club that I am not trying to belittle whatsoever plans they may have in the future. But I, as a member, would like very much to know what are their future plans? It looks like a very poor thing to sit down and do nothing and let the Rogue River Sportsmen Club do the brunt of the work that we may someday receive the benefit of their work. I put a dollar in the club and I want to see it work for the betterment of the fishing and hunting of the valley, but what has it done so far but just to lay idle in the bank account of the club. Well, it is time for you to do something. Have a meeting at once and let every member of the club talk it over. For once and all let everyone give their reason if any, why we should not join the R.R.S.C. and why we should. I am strongly in favor of joining that club and I can not see any reason why we should not.

LOCALS

The Missionary Circle met at the lovely country home of Mrs. Jim Cornutt Friday with a large attendance. All report a very enjoyable time. The ladies saw the beautiful quilt that took the prize at the Gold Hill fair. This was the first quilt Mrs. Cornutt ever made. Mrs. Cornutt won about seven prizes at the fair on flowers and other entries.

Among those attending the fair at San Francisco this past week from here were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Webster, Ruby Webster, Ralston Clark, E. W. Brainerd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Vincent accompanied by their son Bobby and Mr. Vincent's mother left this morning to attend the fair. Mrs. Sarah Vincent will visit her granddaughter Georgianna at Oakland while the rest of the party visit Treasure Island.

Roger Yost accompanied Homer Conger to Corvallis Wednesday.
