THERE YOU ARE

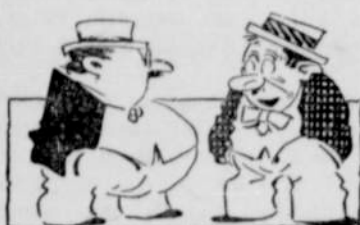

"Of all your office equipment, what do you think counts the most?"
"The adding machine, of course."

HIS PROFESSION

"What's Mr. Smith doing?"
"Making a bridge in the mouth."
"Oh, he's a dentist!"
"No—mouth of the river; he's an engineer."

NEXT CASE

"He was convicted, I know, but wasn't sentence suspended?"
"No—he was."

ONE IN EACH FLOCK

"Jack's mother used to call him her pet lamb."
"Now his old man says he's the black sheep."

OLD MINSTREL JOKE

Tattered Tom—Well, let's lunch.
Weary William—On w'at, you gink!
Tattered Tom—De sand which lies in de road.

TIME TO REDUCE

Miss Obese—Could you see me across the street?
Policeman—Shure, ma'am. Oi could see yez tin times the distance, aisy.

Sport Gags

By K. D. P.

There are some poor lads around here that are asking their annual pleas to Santa Claus. Here they are:

Ray Watkins—Ear muffs so that I may not have to hear the crowing of Kenneth's bragging of his fishing prowess and also a bigger rifle for so far the big buck got away so I have to be content with a small one.

Vinton Beall—A bigger fish for there is one thing I loathe and that is to be the runnerup to Ken.

Jim Ross—More helpers in this store of mine so I can have a little more time for fishing and really show that lucky stiff how to fish.

John Ross—A boat so I do not have to wade up and down the river in an effort to get a big one.

Central Point Sportsmen club—More members in our club.

Brownie Ross—where is that horse liniment you promised last year because I need it bad this year on account of the hard work I have been having in the care of the farm.

Town basketball team—Can you spare some wind this year for we are surely going to need it if we want to go a long way in our league.

High School coach—Get me some aspirins, our boys have not yet clicked.

L. C. Grimes—Let Ken get all the fish he wants, eh, you see he's my best customer.

Everett Faber—we have very bad luck in our softball team's games with other teams last summer. Can you change the luck for next summer? Aw, Santa, give me a break.

Sport Gagger—What is there for me to want more. I have had all I want in the way of friendship with old friends and many new ones. I have a new better half, a boy big enough to lick me. I have been very lucky in my sport of all kinds this year. All I ask is that I be allowed to continue in the same way in the future and to keep friends and make more than ever.

I wish all of my readers and friends A MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY NEW YEAR.

S.S. Class Holds Xmas Party at Grimes Home

"I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of Wickedness."—Psalms 84:10

The Doorkeeper's Class of the Federated Church held its annual Christmas Party Saturday evening, December 16, at the home of its teacher, Mrs. L. C. Grimes.

For several hours the students participated in the following games: Clap-In Clap-Out, Winkum, Same To You, and Filling the Radiator. The participants showed the most enthusiasm during Winkum, of which they continued playing over an hour.

A short devotional period was held during the early part of the evening. The Christmas Story—Luke 2: 8-17—was read by the Class President, Adalene Cassman, followed by prayer by Mrs. Grimes. When Rev. Parrish arrived, he

OH SAY, CAN YOU SKI

If you are a beginner on skis, you will enjoy chussing down a gentle hill like the three fellows above. As an experienced skier, you will get a keen thrill from soaring through space from a high jump. Winter sports are for all to enjoy and are easily accessible to everyone. Many people, like the girl at the left, have found Greyhound bus service a convenient and economical way to reach winter playgrounds.

Group enjoyed singing several choruses, accompanied by Rev. Parrish on the mandolin.

At a late hour refreshments of peppermint apples, cake, and hot chocolate were served by the hostess.

Gifts were then distributed, each one receiving a present from under the beautiful Christmas tree.

Considerable laughter was aroused as the different gifts came to life such as Ferdinand and the five little chickens as they began to eat.

Treats of pop corn balls and boxes of candy were handed out to each guest.

Everyone reported to have had an enjoyable evening and the class would like to extend an invitation to everyone to join them in their Sunday School Worship. We can have an enjoyable time at Church, too, worshipping and praising our Saviour.

Those attending the party were: Chet Grimes, Art Copinger, Maxine Ayers, Faye Casman, Maxine Moore, Violet Thumler, Stub Myers, Iris Hill, Oliver Grimes, Kenneth Williams, Alleen Berry, Ronald James, Shirley Kincaid, Alleen Tamney, Keith Copinger, Loren Cassman, Ena Joyce Milhoun, Erma Jean McCay, Dick Twyman, Lyle Tedrick, Dick Milestone, Mildred Williams, Franklin Gebhard, Milton Garrent, Dick Wyatt, Mary Hodapp, Adalene Cassman, June Conrad, Marie Garrett, Byrnamie McCulloch, Ernestine Tracy, Norene Bohnert, Vivienne Ross, Glen Parks, Lois McManama, Marjorie Parker, Lawrence Cassman, and Rev. Stanley Parrish and the hostess, Mrs. Grimes.

"Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me: for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."—Matt. 11: 28-30

Mrs. Kincaid went to Medford Wednesday after her husband who returned home with her. Mrs. Kincaid has been in the hospital for two or three months suffering with pneumonia and its complication.

So what?—

Rebuke not in anger, nor with severity; hard words are like hailstones in summer, beating down and destroying what they would nourish were they melted into drops.—Anon.

Dr. J. F. Moffatt, when having some very fine Christmas cards made, forget to specify that they were to be signed Dr. and Mrs. and consequently he is now in the dog house.

John Ross being greatly pleased with the new song hit, "Oh Johnnie" and spending a good share of his spare time singing it.

Coach Hulbert starting a rowing team which is to practice on the Central Point Lake (C.P.H.S. football field) and announcing that ABSOLUTELY no fishing will be allowed during practice.

Mrs. Harrison being the laugh of the office staff where she works because of her tendency to yawn so very, very easily.

Dick Watt looking very undignified indeed as he fell full length across the threshold of a certain schoolroom.

Mr. Faber contending that a holiday every day is what is needed to help business.

Jane Menn trying very hard to get something on one of her friends but not having entirely satisfactory results.

George Lockwood trying extremely hard to get rid of some puppies which are "about so long, so wide, and so very cute."

Guy Tex, after phoning, laying the receiver on top of phone and thereby killing the entire line.

One of our very clever school teachers looking forward to Saturday with more eagerness than most kiddies feel for Christmas.

Clifton Phillip's chickens running on neighbor's field and being charged 3¢ a head for 500, when having only 300 to pasture.

W.R.C. to Install Officers Jan. 6

The W.R.C. will hold installation of officers a Saturday, January 6, 1940. This will be a covered dish noon luncheon for members and their families. Members are requested to bring either a fruit or vegetable salad for a pie, also their own table service, plate, cup and silver. The installation will be in the afternoon.
