For sale or trade to the highest bidder—a week in January with wild flowers blooming, lamb tongues, buttercups, etc. or in the garden, violets, narcisses daffodils, prim roses wall flowers, chrysanthemums and marigolds. Wonder what some of our neighbors, snowbound and with thermometer 20 or 30 below, would trade for just one week of this weather we are having. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Merritt received some daisies picked from a snow bank sent by their little granddaughters. Mr. and Mrs. Book's little daughters from Sprague River.

Mrs. Clara Farra received a letter from her son Fred in San Francisco with a S. F. paper showing pictures of the recent rain or rather flood. Looking from the window of his home you could see automobiles stalled in the streets, with the water running over tops of the running boards. The basements were all full of water. It also showed a picture of a tree washed out and fallen in a second story window. Mr. Farra said scenes like these pictures were common.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Yost visited at the Ed Stillwell home this week.

Mrs. Oscar Minnick was called to the E. E. Minnick home by the sickness of Mr. Minnick's mother, Mrs. Eaton, Wednesday.

Mr. W. Ferguson of Gold Hill attended the joint installation of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges Monday evening and met and visited with his namesake, the Central Point W. Ferguson.

Ralph Buckles left Wednesday after a four-day visit with his mother, Mrs. Bert Hedgpath. He is stationed at Mare Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Grimes have received a letter from their son Bill, who is attending school in Los Angeles. Bill reports that he is enjoying his school very much. He is also nappy in renewing his friendship with the Casad boys, who were former residents here a number of years ago.

P.T.A. Celebrates "Dads' Night" Thurs.

Central Point P.T.A. held the annual "Dads' Night" meeting at 8:00 P.M. Thursday January 4.

The fourth grade under the direction of Miss Helen Wilson entertained with a three act playlet, "Magic Oat Field", two poems, a violin solo and song, "God Bless America." By invitation the audience joined in the singing. Special numbers were a son, "Gentle Jesus, Meek and Mild", by Mrs. Ruth Hoyer, Mrs. Virginia Bohnert and Mrs. Francis Hutton with Miss Lysle Gregory at the piano, also a duet in honor of Central Point schools by Jean Kincaid and Rolly Clark accompanied by Miss Ruby Webster.

Rev. Clifton Phillips, speaking on the home, the school and the church, took for his text Hebrew 13-1 "Let Brotherly Love Continue." A business meeting preceded the entertainment. Mrs. Langston and committee served refreshments.

All rumors to the contrary, the Queen Mary is not being turned into a transport to haul Canadian troops to France. Right now Britain's big liner is docked in New York harbor, with a special guard watching to see that it is neither sabotaged nor remodelled. If they plan to convert it into a troop ship, that will have to be done after it leaves U. S. waters. The Queen Mary is the ship that Mrs. A. T. Lathrop made her trip to England this past summer.

Among those attending the Odd Fellows installation at Gold Hill Tuesday night from here were Mr. and Mrs. Copinger, Mr. and Mrs. William Musty, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Musty and Stanley Jones, newly installed Noble Grand of the local lodge.

KENNETH WYATT UNDERGOES OPERATION IN PORTLAND

Mrs. Ray Wyatt returned home from Portland this week after taking Kenneth to the hospital and remaining with him while he underwent an operation on both feet. The bones were crooked, but have now been straightened and put in a cast. He will be there for three months at least. He was very brave about this.

Kenneth was left crippled after an attack of infantile paralysis a number of years ago, but has made wonderful progress and has always been very cheerful in spite of his trouble. His grandfather, Mr. H. L. Davison, who was visiting in Portland, remained with him after the operation but has returned to Central Point. Kenneth will be pleased to receive cards or letters from his schoolmates and other friends.

Annual Election of Church Held Tues.

Church Night and annual election of officers at the Church of Christ Tuesday evening was very well attended. After a bounteous supper a short program was enjoyed—a few musical numbers, a short skit given by J. E. Vincent representing the old Year with Mrs. Victor Bursell, Mrs. George Hays, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. J. E. Vincent as spirits of New Year and Mrs. E. E. Scott as New Year. This skit has been prepared to have been given earlier in the year so the theme was a little late.

Scripture reading and prayer followed the program and reports for 1939 was made. They showed a very successful year with a steady increase in attendance in both church and Bible school. The present officers were re-elected over, with the exception of W. K. Davis who was chosen from the class of Deacons and elected elder. Otto Bohnert was elected Deacon.
