THRONGS SEE OPENING FAIR PARADE

Vast crowds (more than 123,000 attended) view the Golden Fourties Fiesta parade on Treasure Island. Here is a part of the throng pictured in the Temple Compound as the column passed. Such scenes were duplicated hour after hour throughout the gay opening day.

Mrs. C. T. Skyrman was visiting a friend in San Francisco and planning to attend the Fair when she slipped and fell, injuring a ligament in her knee, causing her to return home. She is much improved at this time.

TO PHYLLIS
(As I Dictated It.)

Phyllis, up in the morning,
Spirit of love and spring;
Phyllis, light as the willow,
Voice like the birds that sing.
Phyllis, full of the sunshine,
Sparkling like drops of dew—
Phyllis, Phyllis, O Phyllis,
This is a song for you!

Phyllis, why do you linger?
Why do your feet remain?
Phyllis, we wait your coming
Over the bloom-decked plain.
Phyllis, a brimming beaker
Now your health we quaff,
Setting our hearts all leaping
Lighter than wind-blown chaff!

TO FILL US

(As My Stenographer Took It.)
Fill us up in the morning,
Spirits of loving spring!
Fill us tight as a pillow
Boys like the birds that sing.
Fill us full of moonshine,
Sparkling like drops of dew—
Fill us, fill us, O fill us!
This is too strong for you.

Fill us! Why do you linger?
Why are your feet in pain?
Fill us! We wait your cunning
Over the bloom-necked plain.
Fill us a brimming beaker
Now to your healthy graft—
Send our harts horns leaping
Light as a ring-boned calf!
