Eastern Star Resumes Meetings

An exceptionally large group of O.E.S. members gathered at the Masonic Temple at Central Point last Tuesday evening for the first fall meeting of Nevita Chapter No. 93 O.E.S. Men's Night was the theme of the evening with the men of the Chapter having complete charge of all the arrangements including the program and refreshments. Hensley and Haskill Holt entertained with a short skit entitled "Too Busy". Merritt Swing gave a negro character reading in costume. Later in the evening Mr. Swing sang several songs accompanied by Mrs. Sam Koehler.

The Committee in charge included: Hensley Holt, Chairman, assisted by Merritt Swing and L. C. Scott.

A part of the Chapter Meeting was devoted to a memorial service for Alice E. Hanley. The Worthy Matron opened the service with Rudyard Kipling's poem "When Earth's Last Picture is Painted." Following this Bertha Bursell gave a brief history of Sister Hanley's life and a beautiful tribute to her memory. This memorial service was marked for its stately beauty and originality. A double cross, built especially for this occasion, covered with fern, was placed on the white altar cloth. Then while the organist played hymns and with appropriate scripture each officer dressed in long white dresses placed three white asters in the double edge of the cross, so that when completed the cross was beautifully outlined in white. As each officer placed her flowers she took a position in the Star Labyrinth to form a cross and then with heads bowed this lovely picture was held while Ed Vincent sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

The Chapter rooms were beautifully and appropriately decorated with fall blossoms by Clara Vincent.

The Associate Matron, Margaret Swing, announced the reception Nevita Chapter will hold September 24 at 9 o'clock for Beulah Faber, a member of the Traveling Flag Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. This reception will be held following the regular Chapter meeting. Invitations have been issued to all the valley chapters of the Order.

Distinguished guests at Tuesday's meeting were: Mrs. Nellie McGowan, Past Grand Matron, of Medford and Miss Mollie Britt, Grand Representative of the District of Columbia, of Jacksonville.

Central Point now has lockers at the Sonoma Valley Cheese Factory. It is now up to the people to patronize them. There are a number of empty lockers. Come in and see them. The company asks for constructive criticism. Bring in your fish, meat, or later, your venison, peaches, pears or vegetables and enjoy them fresh the year around.

Word has been received that Russell Fletcher Riddle of Route 1, Central Point, has enlisted in the Navy and left for San Diego, California, this week to commence an eight week period of training to qualify him for assignment to some vessel in the U. S. fleet.

J. H. Snyder of San Francisco, son-in-law of Mrs. Jennie White, and son Bill, who has been spending the summer at a forest service lookout station and who is a graduate of the local high school, are enjoying a few days' visit at the White home on Cedar street.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our dear friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers and kind words of sympathy during our hours of bereavement in the loss of our infant daughter Patricia Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards

WRESTLING NEWS

Promoter Mack Lillard was today anxiously scanning the grappling horizon for an opponent to toss in there against big Mike Nazarian next Monday night, and he wasn't overly confident of being able to obtain anybody capable of making the mean Armenian work up a good sweat.
