LABOR PAPER SUPPORTS WILKIE

The Cedar Rapids (Ia.) Tribune, for 34 years official labor paper of that city, publishes a lengthy editorial reciting its reasons for opposing Franklin D. Roosevelt and supporting Wendell Wilkie for President. Following are excerpts:

We are against Mr. Roosevelt because—

He never has shed a spoonful of sweat at manual labor, or known the fear of losing a job that meant his bread and butter, or worried over his inability to put his children through school, or suffered the embarrassment of having to wear shiny pants and shabby shoes.

He is a politician—a master politician—a ruthless politician; and expert politics IS A DANGER TO THE LIFE OF ANY DEMOCRACY. Adolf Hitler by his own admission is a politician of that kind. . . .

Apparently he resents deeply and forever any personal opposition. The Supreme Court differed with him and he called the justices decrepit old men and tried by every means he knew to take their judicial powers away from them. When outstandingly able men of his own party, such as Senator Gillette of Iowa, opposed some of his policies, he sought to "purge" them back to private life. He is of course densely ignorant concerning the organized labor movement—its ideals, its objectives and its needs. He proved this when he appointed as Secretary of Labor not a two-faced man who understood labor but a timid, vague, middle-aged female. . . .

He does not keep his word. His public utterances abound in promises solemnly made—"It is my pledge and promise to you"—that later have been broken without apology and without explanation.

And finally—though in truth this is our main reason—The Tribune opposes Mr. Roosevelt for the same reason that Al Smith and Carter Glass and Burt Wheeler and John Garner and a host of other sincere Democrats oppose him: BECAUSE HE DEMANDS A THIRD TERM. . . .

We are for Mr. Wilkie because—
* * * He has lived and worked in many States, and at many occupations. He was born a "common" child, of "common" parents in a "common" town, and all his life he has been in contact with us who are common people.

He worked with his hands to buy his food and clothing and to educate himself, even as you and I did.

He is no politician, and THANK GOD FOR THAT!

He has a keen and practical mind, else he would not have risen so high on merit alone; and that talent is sorely needed by any Chief Executive of this Nation.

He surely is an honest man, upright in his dealings, for the utmost efforts of his opponents in this campaign have failed to unearth anything in his career to his serious discredit.

To sum up: He is common; he is thoroughly and typically American; he has a constructive mind—a thinker and a doer; he cherishes no hates; he apparently has no personal vanity.

20-Year Orator To Speak Sunday

The people of this vicinity have in store a treat. Tiffin Reed, 20 year old orator comes to Medford Senior High at 2:00 p.m. Sunday October 27th. He was one of the main speakers at the Townsend Convention in St. Louis and won great acclaim for his speaking ability. Students and instructors in public speaking can well afford to hear him. He will talk on the Townsend Plan and every one is cordially invited to attend. No admission charge, entrance free. Every body welcome.
