JUNIOR PLAY CAST NOW ANNOUNCED

The cast for the junior class play, "Don't Darken My Door", directed by Mr. Harrison has now been announced. The play, which is a three act comedy, has a cast of eight characters.

Woodrow Phillips portrays Roger Kent, a well groomed and vigorous bachelor of about fifty years. He is a man of some means, unmarried because he has never found the right girl.

Roger Kent's niece, Rosemary, a pretty young girl of twenty is taken by Elaine Westrup. She is gracious and charming at times and a romantic little goose at others.

Tom Garrick is a lad in his early twenties, clean-cut and well built. He is boyish and full of fun but there is nothing romantic about him; nevertheless, he is sincerely in love with Rosemary. This part is taken by Richard Krupp.

Coral Hilkey as Poppy Foster is a sturdy young country miss of eighteen or so. She has become romantic due to her devotion to Miss Rosemary and her constant reading of love novels.

Alex Stubbins, an ignorant young gardener—stalwart, red-faced, and clumsy, is played by Albert Thompson. He is madly in love with Poppy who ignores him completely because he isn't romantic.

Miss Louisa Featherstone is a maidenly lady of undetermined age—on the other side of fifty—very old fashioned and is considered the bulwark of the family. The part is portrayed by Virginia Stimson.

The role of Miss Susie Featherstone is taken by Maxine Hale. She is a mite younger than Miss Louisa her sister, and at times seems almost girlish.

Jane Perkins is a plain faced spinster of thirty-odd who writes love novels. This part is taken by Leona Huston.

The following committees have been appointed to assist with the production: Business, Ruth Freeland and Elizabeth Nicholson; advertising, Anita Dickey and Bob Tucker; stage Wilmer Higinbotham and Norman Smith; properties, Nadine Musty; sound effects, Ernest Paker; prompter, Virginia Luther.

CHRISTMAS PARTY WILL BE HELD FRIDAY

Plans have been made for the high school's annual Christmas party to be held in the new gymnasium Friday, December 20.

School will be dismissed at 1:30 in the afternoon for the party. The high school orchestra and girls' chorus under the direction of Mr. Harry Meyers and members of the grade school will present the program.

INTERMURAL PROGRAM TO BE ARRANGED

An intermural program has been arranged for the students who are on the grounds at noon and others who wish to participate in these activities. If a sufficient number attend there will be basketball games worked out on a definite schedule. In the meantime ping-pong and free-throw contests occupy the time of the participants. This new program is expected to be popular with all students. These activities take place in the new gym.

SENIORS AND ALUMNI TO MEET AT CHALKER'S

Friday, December 27, seniors and alumni will meet at Chalker's Motel, north of Gold Hill on the Pacific highway, for an evening of fun and frolic.

Festivities will start with a banquet followed by games and dancing later in the evening.

This is now an annual event which is eagerly anticipated by both seniors and graduates. This is the time, each year, when old acquaintances are renewed and new ones are made.

There will be a cover charge of one dollar.

An all-talkie motion picture, "Barefoot Boy", was shown at the high school Friday afternoon, December 13.

The picture is based upon the immortal poem, "Barefoot Boy", by John Greenleaf Whittier. It depicts the adventures of a group of daring boys and girls who prove that a supposedly haunted house is, in reality, the hideout of two outlaws.

The added attraction was a comedy, "Paleface".

The purpose of the picture was to help raise funds for the annual.
