Virginia Wright is Candidate for Queen

On conclusion of enrollment of candidates in Klamath county, Oregon, and Shasta county, California, which is now in progress, the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland Association's publicity and advertising campaign to designate a corps of 19 "Wonderland Weicomettes" as regional and individual county theme girls will be in full swing in all nine counties. Those designated to officiate as "Miss Shasta-Cascade—1941 Alice in Wonderland" and as theme girls for this and other counties of the region will serve in photographic and ceremonial ways to lend color and originality to the association's intensive national campaign through newspapers, magazines, pictorial services, news movies and personal appearances to publicize the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland scenic and recreational region.

Wonderland counties in which the "Fun Festival" campaign is already in progress are Jackson, Lake, Modoc, Siskiyou, Lassen, Trinity and Tehama counties. Inasmuch as the campaign is being rotated among the counties, Klamath county, Oregon, and Shasta county, California, where enrollment of theme girl candidates is now under way, are the last to start and will be the last to determine the ultimate selection of "Miss Shasta-Cascade" and their respective county title-holders.

Central Point has a candidate for the regional title of "Miss Shasta-Cascade" also for the title of "Miss Jackson County". She is Virginia Wright.

Former Residents To Leave for Camp

Among well known boys leaving February 29 for the selective service induction center at Portland and a year of military training if they meet all qualifications are Paul Walker, son of A. W. Walker, real estate dealer and a former resident of Central Point, and George Corse, who was a former barber in the Gleason Shop. Both boys volunteered. A big sendoff is planned for the boys and it is hoped that Central Point will be well represented. The program will start in the court house auditorium at 7:00 p.m. this evening.
