Junior Class Presents Don't Darken My Door

A large crowd witnessed the junior presentation of "Don't Darken My Door" last Friday evening.

This splendid performance was due to the persistent coaching of Mr. Harrison, who may well be proud of the results of his efforts.

The play was well cast: Woodrow Phillips as Roger Kent, gave a convincing performance of a crusty old bachelor, who was trying to rid himself of his young niece.

Elaine Westrup portrayed Rosemary Kent, a young girl who was devoting her life to make her uncle's house a home. She was an ardent reader of Jane Perkin's novels.

Richard Krupp ably portrayed Tom Garrish, the fickle strong, silent man who had suffered.

Coral Hilkey as Poppy Foster added much humor to the performance, in her role of the sturdy country girl.

Albert Thompson as Alec Stubbins, an awkward country boy, was a sure laugh at each appearance. Virginia Stimson added much humor as the bulwark of the Featherstone family.

Miss Susie played by Maxine Hale, showed capability in handling the role of the romantic old maid.

Leona Huston was seen as Jane Perkins, the writer of love novels, who took an assumed name and lent a helping hand to the Kent family.

Those in charge of the arrangements are also to be commended for their fine co-operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Parson and little daughter Fonda Rose of Klamath Falls arrived Sunday to congratulate the newly weds Mr. and Mrs. Verl Edwards. Mrs. Edwards is a niece of the Parsons.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBel of Fresno spent the week end at the Dorland home on their way to Washington to visit friends. Lois Dorland will be home soon to spend a spring vacation of ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark McDowell have bought the Grimes house from Mr. Tetherow.

Mrs. Tex accompanied Mrs. Blanche Frisbie to Prospect Wednesday.

The Civic club is having the lot next to the library dragged and leveled ready for planting a lawn. The new evergreens on the lot are looking fine.

Rev. C. A. Phillips is very ill with what is thought to be a relapse of the flu.

Mr. L. P. Mathes, who recently made a trip to Portland and as far west as Toledo, stopped for a two hour visit with Ersel Lewis at Salem. Mr. Lewis is feeling fine and reports that he feels like a sixteen year old boy. The doctor says he can return home any time but Mr. Lewis feel like it would be better to wait until the warm weather of summer is here. During Mr. L. P. Mathes' trip he also visited with Mr. Otis Finn of Vida who formerly lived in the Table Rock district. Mr. Finn sent messages to Theodore Glass and other friends.

Maxine Moore is working in a beauty shop in Grants Pass.

The school board met Tuesday evening and all the present teachers were offered a new contract for the coming school year.
