A SECOND home to the boys of Fort McClellan is the Y.M.C.A. clubhouse in Anniston, Alabama, to which they turn for relaxation during their hours off duty. Offering facilities for table tennis, dancing and other advantages of wholesome community life, the Y.M.C.A. clubhouse in Anniston is typical of the more than 300 service clubs to be operated by the United Service Organizations for National Defense for the use of the men in uniform and the thousands of young people gaged in vital defense industries. In order to finance the operation of the service clubs, which the Government is building in points adjacent to camps, naval stations and industrial areas, a drive for $10,765,000 will be launched in behalf of the U.S.O. on June 3. Funds resulting from the drive will be devoted to bringing to the members of the armed forces and the workers in defense industries a comprehensive program of recreation, spiritual guidance and companionship. The U.S.O. consists of the Y.M.C.A., the National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Y.W.C.A., the Jewish Welfare Board and the National Travelers Aid Association whose trained workers and volunteers will staff the U.S.O. clubhouses.

Number of Births Highest in 16 Years

More babies are being born each month in Oregon, and 1941 records are reaching a new high for any period since 1925. Not only is the birth rate increasing, but at the same time Oregon's infant mortality rate has reached a new low, reports the public health research department of the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance company.

In the month of April, alone, 1685 births were recorded in the state. Portland recorded 529 births. The counties reporting the highest numbers were Lane, Malheur, and Marion. Birth records in Oregon in 1940 exceeded all records back to 1927, but 1941 reports are topping last year's.

According to the latest reports of the public health research department of the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance company, the infant mortality rate is 22.6 per 1000 live births. This rate is about one-half the national average, and is extremely low even for Oregon, which has always maintained a low infant mortality rating.

Plans Completed For Ashland Fete

ASHLAND, June 11—Local Fourth of July celebration's plans are now in full swing, with a well-rounded program scheduled for visiting southern Oregonians and northern Californians.

The tentative general program will now include a soap box derby, parades, two performance rodeo and horse show, evening fireworks display, dance, swimming contests and other events.

Emphasis this week is being placed on the amateur rodeo and horse show sponsored by the Ashland Trail Riders. Finishing touches are being hurried on the "Diamond Circle Corral", the new and unique rodeo grounds leased by Frank Beck to the Trail Riders. Wild range stock will be used; horses, steers and calves being taken from ranges in southern Oregon and northern California.

Riders and performers will be local amateurs, it was emphasized this week. Participants may register next week for the various events. Applications will be taken at the offices of the local chamber of commerce. Performers must be from southern Oregon and northern California. No professional riders will be accepted. Meanwhile, additional tables are being installed in Lithia Park for picnics and basket luncheons on the Fourth. Park Superintendent, E. C. Corry has reported that it will be
