

Sport Gags

By K. D. P.

On the back of the regular hunting license is imprinted the words: THIS LICENSE DOES NOT PERMIT YOU TO TRESPASS ON PRIVATE PROPERTY.

Does not that explain clearly. So whenever you come to a sign No Trespassing, you'd better respect that or be due for trouble because the owners that own the farms have as much right as you have though they may not own the pheasants. But who can help that when the pheasants get in to their farms. I am willing to bet that there are over half of them who will pleasantly let you hunt if asked in the first place. I never had any trouble last year because I asked for permission first and I expect to do so this year.

Howard District

By Mrs. Ella H. Leonard

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnett of Glen Elder, Kansas, left Tuesday after a ten day visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Yantis, the former of whom is her brother. This is the first time the Barnetts have been west. The time has been spent seeing the country and noting its industries. The sawmill, and the handling of the granite crusher on the old stage road were found so interesting, as nothing like them had before been seen. When asked how they liked the country, they said, "It's wonderful. The ride to Crater Lake was so lovely with its many colorings. We like the mountains and streams and timber." No we have never yet seen the ocean. But we expect to spend the winter at Arcata. And perhaps return here for the holidays to be with the folks.

Mrs. E. W. Thomas and children, Miss Dorothy, John Warren, and George made a trip to Bend last week end to bring back the granddaughter Margie for a fortnight visit. The mother will come down then on her vacation from her job as dentist assistant, to take her daughter home again.

"How many dozen eggs do you think we've got this week to sell."

asked "Granpa" Beach, his eyes shining bright. "One hundred", he answered, he answered himself excitedly, as his small granddaughter stumbled over his fallen canes. He held out his arms to her: "Come here honey, and let granpa rock you to sleep." "Granpa" is tied more and more to his chair. Walking is a painful process.

When the Extension Unit was asked for its news items, a woman said, "We take the Tribune, and they aren't in it, and we don't see them." "Motto: Take The American, and you'll see something about yourself's", the reporter advised.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tex went to Shasta Dam last Saturday. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bodin and Mr. and Mrs. Dade Territt at Yreka and returned home by Doris and Klamath Falls and Prospect. Saturday was a lovely day and the Shasta dam was wonderful. They traveled thru 20 miles of snow and stopped to hunt on Huckleberry Mt. But on account of so many people there cutting Christmas trees, Mr. Tex did not hunt.

Mrs. E. C. Faber left Friday evening for Portland where she is visiting her son Donald and wife. She plans to make a trip with her cousin to Willard, Washington where they will visit relatives.

Mr. M. Peck and Victor Noel made a trip to Butte Falls recently.

Mrs. Bert Langston is staying in Mills City and caring for her mother.

Mt. Pitt Lumber Co. has begun to tear down their pine from the storage yard and ship it.

The Wednesday sewing club met for a one o'clock dessert luncheon at the home of Bonnie Highbotham. Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon. Everyone had a jolly time. Mrs. Teddy Reynolds of Glendale was present. About ten members were present.
