South America As Seen by Local Lady

Mrs. Mildred Swain is writing to her mother, Mrs. E. E. Scott, from South America, where she is with her husband, who is employed by the government rubber research.

March 21st, 1944

Am glad you liked the chapter written about our trip to Belém and at least it is readable. It is poorly written but will give you an idea of what the place is like. It was certainly a nice change for us to get away for awhile.

As I mentioned in a recent letter, Joe has been in Belém but is back here now and will probably stay put for another couple of months before he has to make another trip. He will probably have to make little trips now and then from now on or at least that's the way it looks now. I thought I would get caught up on a lot of things while he was gone but instead all our friends deluged me with invitations for fear I would be lonely and as a result I accomplished less than usual. However, I think it was most thoughtful of them to think of me, don't you? We have some very nice friends down here and certainly appreciate them too.

Thirteen member were out to the Red Cross surgical bandage class besides five girl scouts; Lois Parson.
