

A Prayer

Across the world the sound of shells has ceased . . .
 And quiet shrouds the battle-rubbed West . . .
 The enemy has laid away his arms, and Death and Pain are done in France.
 But I go on . . . for I must fight and kill . . .
 And work and sweat . . . and hide and run . . .
 For here the enemy is very much alive . . .
 His bullets still are made of lead . . .
 Their angry whispers still foretell of sudden death
 For me and others crouched in slime and mud . . .
 The end for us is yet to come . . .
 And so we pray to God to give us strength
 To fight and win . . . without the waste of Time . . .
 And with His Will . . . to see our homes again.
