

Prize Given for Oldest Married Couple

Sunday evening at the Christian church Mr. E. Gilbert Cays preached on "The Secret of Happiness in Married Life." Before the sermon he called for the oldest married couple to stand. Mr. and Mrs. Al Henderson had been married 52 years, but Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Culbertson had been married 59 years. They were presented with a beautiful picture. He then called for the couple with the most children present. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bingham won this and received a sack of flour. The next couple were for those married the shortest time, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blankenship won and Mrs. Blankenship was presented with a rolling pin which Mr. Blankenship didn't appreciate.

Anders to Open Shop in Medford

Mr. Ray Anders is putting in a projecting room for 8MM and 16MM in Medford, 236 East Main. This will be a rental library, where any one can come in and get a camera, projector or films for an evening. New cameras and films will be available to only essential workers. Mr. Anders states that his business will continue the same here as always. He will do the same class of work at either place. Customers are now coming to him from Ashland, Eagle Point and Gold Hill and the regular work that he has always had from Central Point and Medford. This new rental library will be known as Anders's Photo shop.
