South America As Seen by Local Lady

Mrs. Mildred Swain is writing to her mother, Mrs. E. E. Scott, from South America, where she is with her husband, who is employed by the government rubber research.

Arrived at Rio airport at 2:00 P.M. and the last half hour I had to talk a blue streak to the little Brazilian girl to keep her from getting airsick when we started to descend.

Mabel and I spent the first part of our stay at the lovely Gloria Hotel and enjoyed it very much. Had ourselves made beautiful at the Casa Doret beauty shop in Rio and were all set.

We were invited by the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs offices to attend their special showing of "Fighting Lady," the highly publicized movie put on the Navy, at the new and modern A.B.I. building.

Mabel and I took in some wonderful movies while in Rio which was a real treat since the ones here are at least two years old and usually four to six years old.

quite drive out of Rio. You drive on a winding road around the sides of cliffs, always facing the sea, and finally arrive at this beautiful rolling country where the club is. Had lunch with her out there and later stayed all night at her home and went bathing at Ipanema and Leblon Beach the following day. It was a delightful.

AS I SEE IT By Archie Parker

(Continued from last week) An I was saying—what chance has the native people of that little old valley against the invasion and weapons of (so-called) civilization?

The 53-year-old colonel has photographed the valley and its people from one end to the other—he has taken a bunch of war correspondents over the place to let their mouths water at the thoughts of exploring the isolated and mysterious place.

I wonder how Col Elamore would like it, or what he would say if I stuck a bunch of 5 & 10 jewelry in my pocket, strapped a couple of six-guns to my side and called at his home in Menlo Park, California, with the purpose in mind to see what kind of people they were and to bargain with my 5 & 10ths.

The Golden Link class will hold their class part at the Scott home this Friday at 2 p.m.
