Eugene Man Named Head of Disabled Vets

Paul Thralson, Eugene, was named state commander of Disabled American Veterans in the closing sessions of their two-day convention which ended at Medford yesterday.

John Soummi, Oregon City, was elected senior vice commander and Clarence D. Griffith, Medford, only World War Two veteran named to an office, was chosen as junior vice commander. Pat Graham, Medford, was elected state executive committeeman and Dave King, past commander of Portland chapter, was chosen state adjutant.

A officers' banquet was held at Jackson Hotel at noon yesterday and a Trench Hats banquet and rendezvous at 7 p.m. yesterday closed the convention.

A resolution or an inspection committee of five members to gain speedy entrance to veterans hospitals was introduced by Pat Grahaam and adopted by the convention. The state group also passed several resolutions pertaining to GI benefits.

The convention unanimously endorsed Dow V. Walker, Newport, as nominee for national commander at the national convention in Chicago in September. He is now chairman of the National Finance committee.

It was announced at Tuesday's session that Lyle Dailey, state adjutant last year, will assume full time duties as national service officer with offices in Portland.

Mrs. Eunice Faris, outgoing DAV auxiliary commander, reported on the auxiliary convention which is being held in Grants Pass.

At the closing of Tuesday afternoon's session Grants Pass asked for the state convention next year.

AS I SEE IT

By Archie Parker

WELL WHAT DO YOU KNOW—Here I have been talking about Col. Elamore's desired invasion of Shangri-la and lo-and-behold an army plane land-crashed right into the valley. And now a landing strip is being made to land a glider to make the rescue of the few remaining survivors.

All ready Shangri-la has drawn the first blood from our first accidental-invasion of the valley. 20 of our people have died and found a resting place within the mysterious jungle. Thus one more fulfillment of the Cosmic-Law of Cause, Effect and Result.

Well girls, wake up and take notice. There are twenty five thousand English GI brides waiting and clamoring for passage to the U.S.A. That means that there are twenty five thousand good American girls that American soldiers have deserted and left stranded—high and dry—holding the bag. Not only that, but you girls that were left behind will be expected to step off the side-walk to let the BLYMIE-BRIDES go by when they land in this country. For it is evident that is for whom the twenty five thousand GIs were fighting for, and not you good American girls. Oh yes, but I have an enlarged picture of our Good American Girls getting off the sidewalk for any English girl.

Did you know that Molotoff took about a car-load of our precious cameras and wrist-watches back to Russia with him. And we can hardly get them for love nor money. Some- setup.

SUSY---

The store cat allows that with two summers and one winter ahead of us, some of the boys should skip one or two fishing trips and help complete the Legion Hall before the boys in the Pacific come home. They are doing a grand job and our only real mark of appreciation should be a Memorial of usefulness, friendship and beauty. The foundation is there, the spirit and determination is still bright and all that is necessary is more willing hands to complete an unselfish job.
