Primus Quirks,

The old wind bag, let the weather get away from him last week and nearly blew us out of the county. The prediction for the next few days will be determined next month. Primus claims that the best deal is to work under cover and clean up the barn and the chicken houses. Spray for lice and mites so that the chicken feed will be used to produce eggs and not parasites.

A supply of plow shares for the Ferguson has arrived with a few for the Oliver 20 and 40. Spring and peg harrow teeth are still in good order.

Where Do They All Come From?

Did you ever wonder where Jim, Joe, Betty, Mary, or any of your friends were born? Did you ever wonder how many states were represented, or, how many states students were from in your school? You probably have, so the following are some statistics on the subject.

Seventy six out of one hundred and thirty nine students were born in Oregon, with fifty-six of these born in Jackson County.

The following are the twenty two

Seniors Face Camera To Get Annual Pictures

Looking their prettiest and sitting for their portraits, the seniors have been busy this past week having individual photographs made for the '46 Annual.

Ray Anders, photographer, suggested that by getting their pictures taken now, seniors will be "killing two birds with one stone." The pictures can be used for Christmas presents as well as for the Annual.

Football pictures for the Annual were taken last Wednesday.

Official "C" To Be Given Managers

An amendment to the constitution which was proposed in the Student Council meeting Tuesday, November 27, was passed by a vote of the Student Body yesterday.

The amendment is to go in the Article relating to letter awards and reads as follows:

"The official 'C' with the emblem 'Mgr.' shall be awarded to the business manager upon recommendation of the principal. This same award shall be made to managers in each sport upon recommendation of the coach."

The Student Council voted to sponsor two more outside assembly programs, a hypnotist and Happy Harvey. Bub Burns has already entertained the student body.

It was decided that a $2.50 forfeit was to be paid by every organization not giving an assembly program and a $7.50 award will be given to the organization who gives the best program. The Student Council was the first to forfeit the $2.50.

so sore." These are just some of the things that the girls are saying as they go slowly and stiffly down the halls.

Yes, the girls are very sore. This year the girls of the Physical Education will have to pass 27 stunts before they can pass the physical education course.

These 27 stunts have just been made a state requirement in Physical Education for girls. In the recent meeting of all the Physical Education teachers in the county the stunts and exercises were demonstrated.

Mrs. Ethel Smith attended the class from the Central Point High School and is now teaching them to her three classes.
