Pointer Team Defeats Eagles

Central Point defeated Eagle Point 28-14 in a league basketball game Friday at Eagle Point.

The first and second quarters saw little scoring by either team, the half ending 10-6 with Central Point in the lead. Central Point came back in the second half and scored 13 points, the Eagles 7. Central Point seconds saw some action in the second half as three first string men had four fouls.

Walgamett of Eagle Point was the only one that made any field goals for the Eagles. He was hampered by too many fouls and had to leave the game until the second half. Walgamett led the Eagles scoring 8 points. High point man was Holland with 12 points.

"The defense of Central Point was the winner for them, causing the Eagles only to try long shots," it was stated by Tom Colley, captain.

First string game line up:

PLEASED—

We were pleased when we received a letter from Seattle saying that the party had just finished reading the "Musings" and that she was interested in subscribing to The American and a subscription was enclosed. The party is unknown to us and how she seen an American we do not know but never-the-less we were pleased. The name is on file.

Mrs. Lloyd Stimson, retiring matron, was presented a Past Matron's Jewel a gift of the Chapter, by Orville Hamilton, retiring patron. Mr. Hamilton, retiring patron, was presented a Past Parton's pin, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Stimson, by C. W. Abbott, Worthy Patron.

Mrs. Sam Koehler, who is retiring as organist after thirteen years of service, was the recipient of a lovely gift from the Chapter, presented by Mrs. Howard Jewett.

New officers wore corsages of yellow and blue and decorations about the chapter rooms carried out the same color scheme. Baskets of yellow accacia with blue bows and potted ferns and palms added to the attractiveness of the setting. Mrs. Leonard Freeman and Mrs. Merritt Swin were in charge of Chapter room decorations.

The tables in the dining room were of unusual beauty with a winter wonder-land setting. White trees and cedar sprigs painted white, grouped glistening cotton with white statues and white deer, were used down the center of each table. White cakes, individually decorated with white crinkled leaves further carried out the winter scene. Mrs. Ellis Clark made the very original decorations for the tables. Her committee included Mrs. Edward C. Faber, Mrs. Guy Tex, Mrs. Mary Moore and Mrs. Everett A. Faber.

Special guests for the evening included: Mrs. Hope Wood, Grand Rep. Chapter; Mrs. Amelia Hiles, Worthy Matron of Reames Chapter; Mrs. Mabel Todd, Worthy Matron of Adarel Chapter, and J. E. Mathews, Worthy Patron of Adarel Chapter.

The next regular meeting of Nevita Chapter will be Tuesday evening, January 22, at 8 o'clock at the Masonic Temple.
