

Pointers Down Crusaders 48-29

Central Pointers took their fourth consecutive league tilt when they downed St. Mary's Crusaders Friday, January 25.

The Crusaders took an early lead and were out ahead 8 to 5 at the end of the first period. The second stanza started fast with two quick baskets by Holland and Saxbury of the Pointers. Then the game was basket by basket until three minutes remained of the second period and the Pointers got three quick baskets to have a half time lead of 18 to 12. After this the Pointers were never in danger. As the second half started the Pointer five clicked as they rolled the score up 40 to 21. This period was where most of the Pointers' score was made. The final period was slow with the Pointer seconds holding the Crusaders and playing most of this stanza.

Bill Saxbury led all scorers with 16 markers, while Howard Rickman paced the losers with 14.

Pointers (48)	Crusaders (29)
Holland 9	Rickman 5
Colley T. 8	Fasli 2
Kincald 1	C Rickman B. 14
Arnorn 2	G Rickman B. 4
Saxbury 16	Owen 6

Substitutes: Central Point—Rupp, West, Hansen 6, H. Colley 6, Milhoan, Hartman 1. Crusaders: Horton, Harden, Cockem, Messer.

Annual Progressing Editor Announces

The senior annual, the Pointer, is coming along satisfactorily, according to Doris McManama, the annual editor.

The dummy will be set up this week as soon as the ads are turned in. The annual will feature many picture pages, and will contain approximately forty pages.

Any one having snapshots that he wants to contribute, is asked to hand them in as soon as possible. Any member of the staff will accept the snapshots and any student in school may contribute them.

The staff consists of Doris McManama, editor; Merylene Gehhard and Kenneth Wyatt, assistant editors; Jim Anders, business manager; and Bill Saxbury, advertising manager.

Freshman Class Leads Honor Roll List

Leading the honor roll for the first semester the freshman class produced six winners: Monte Coleman, Patsy Faber, Donna Nealon, Jan Freeman, Sam Glass and Stanley Snook. Monte, Patsy and Donna have retained honor roll grades the entire semester.

Second with five on the honor roll is the senior class with Jo Ann Doran, Ruth Keizer, Doris McManama, Ken Wyatt, and Roland Smith. Jo Ann, Ruth, Doris, and Ken rated the honor roll each six weeks of the semester.

The sophomores and juniors tied in number, each having three on their respective rolls, and Nancy Hunter, Phyllis Stauffer, and Jean Kincald were on the sophomore roll, Nancy and Phyllis having been on all semester.

Loree Brennessoltz, Eleanor Pfaff, and Mary Pence made the junior roll, Loree having rated each six weeks of the first semester.

Order of C Holds Annual Initiation

A record number of fourteen lettermen were initiated into the Order of C Thursday by five of the seven members.

Those initiated were Melvin Kelly, Jim Anders, Jim Milhoan, Charles Taylor, La Dale Herrmann, Edward Ewald, Don Faber, Scott Rupp, Bud

Meadows, Jack Milhoan, Mervyn Gleason, Wallace West, and Monte Coleman.

The party was a show, "Wonder Man", and afterwards a dinner, paid for by the Order of the C. After an initiation that wasn't very agreeable to the new members, according to all of them, the new lettermen were made members of the Order of C.

The new members were required to pay a fee of $3.50 for the initiation party given by the old members. Marianne Pinkham and Neola Culbertson attended the Danny Kay show "Wonder Man" twice. Each time they saw the same group of C.P. boys. Some people will do anything for a laugh.
