Col. A. D. Harver to Address P.T.A. Friday

Col. A. D. Harver is the guest speaker for Dad's Night this evening at 7:45 at the High School. Eve Prentice's Accordion Girls will present some musical numbers; and Miss Mabel Jewett, of Grants Pass, will demonstrate the Flannelgraph work as it is taught in the schools.

This meeting will take the place of the regular Parent Teacher meeting which is usually held on the afternoon first Friday of the each month. It was postponed this month because of Grange Initiation last Friday.

Mrs. Lillian Lowry, Membership Chairman, will be present to receive any membership dues. This will afford an opportunity for any who would like to do so to become P.T.A. members.

Also, Mrs. Ruth Clark will accept subscriptions to the National Parent Teacher Magazine.

At the P.T.A. Executive meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Beulah Faber, a committee was appointed for the purpose of recommending a student to receive the scholarship to Southern Oregon College of Education. The giving of this scholarship has been selected by the association as a project for this year. The student is to be selected upon his scholastic standing, his civic interest and ability, and his financial requirements. The recommending committee consists of Supt. H. P. Jewett; Mayor E. E. Scott, and vice-chairman Dorothy Morris.

Mrs. Kay Burns gave a birthday party at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Sandra, who was nine years old. This was her first real birthday party, and a number of her school mates participated.

She received many lovely gifts. Birthday cake, ice cream, and hot chocolate were served.

Social Hygiene Groups Are Organized Here

Three Social Hygiene groups, sponsored by the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, have organized and held their first meetings here. This is an educational home study course designed to give the knowledge and background necessary for parents to teach their children so that they will be healthy, happy wholesome individuals. Some of the topics to be studied are: Parental Preparation For Training the Child; The Questions Children Ask Or Do Not Ask; Preparing The Child for Adolescence; Emotional Health in Adolescence; Some Problems in Adolescence; and Look Ahead to Marriage.

Motion pictures will be shown at the High School Tuesday evening at 7:30 for women and girls only, in connection with this work. All women are invited whether or not they are taking the home study courses.

A Home Study Group will meet with Ruth Clark Nov. 19 at 7:30; another at the home of Mrs. L. H. Camp at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon. Anyone who is interested is urged to meet with any of these groups.

The group meeting with Eudora Bohner and Irene Anhorn will be announced later.

NOTICE

Nevita Social Club will meet at the Masonic hall, Friday, November 15. Covered dish luncheon.
