

Miss Georgina Hemple, Vernon Collins Wed

Miss Georgina Mary Hemple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hemple of 702 Victory street, became the bride of Verlin Norman Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen E. Curtis of this city, at a ceremony Friday evening, January 10, at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses. The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the service.

The bride's costume was a powder blue dress with silver stud trim and cherry cote accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenia corsage. The groom's sister, Miss Ila Collins, attended the bride and wore a rose dress with a gardenia corsage. Robert Collins, brother of the groom, was best man.

The Rev. Millard sang during the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Hawes served the wedding cake at a reception, which was held in the chapel following the wedding. Punch was served by Mrs. L. J. Thomas and Mrs. Ed Cross and Miss Virginia Brown assisted.

The groom, a former petty officer, was discharged from the navy last year, after four years' service, including one year in the south Pacific theater. The bride has been employed at the Talent saw mill as a secretary for the past year.

They will reside in Medford.

'Parsonage Party' Held at Camp Home Mon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Camp were hosts Monday noon at a "Parsonage Party" for the ministers of the Rogue River Valley churches of Christ and their wives.

Those who ate "pot luck" included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Downing and Evangelist Ross Evans, of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mitchell, of Medford, Mr. Gordon Hypes, of Grants Pass, and singing evangelist, Hal Camp and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richards, of Cincinnati, Ohio, came after lunch.

The afternoon was spent in informal visiting and discussion of future plans for the churches.

Girl Scouts Choose New Patrol Leaders

At last meeting we elected patrol leaders. They were Doreen Bohnert, Blue Bird patrol; Laura Lee Stevenson, Singing Stars patrol. The newly elected scribe is Doreen Bohnert. Each month we have a skating party. The next one will be Saturday, 18th. Our scout meeting date has been changed to Monday instead of Tuesday. We are working on a music badge. Next meeting we will dramatize a song by an American composer.

Bud Adams Sells Auto Repair Shop

The general repair shop owned by Bud Adams has been purchased by A. W. Adams and Frank Jones. Mr. A. W. Adams was formerly shop forman with Cullen Motor and Imp. of Medford. He makes his home in Medford at present.

Mr. Jones was connected with the saw filling shop next to the Adams' garage and sold his interest in that business a few weeks ago. Both men are experienced auto mechanics and will do all kinds of general repair work.

They have purchased new equipment, a lathe and welding equipment which will be installed soon. The shop will continue under the same name, Adams' Garage.

Both men are veterans of World War II. Mr. Adams being in the army four years and 9 months and Mr. Jones about 2 years.

Ashland	1	3	.250
Grants Pass	1	3	.250

Eleven players, 2 managers, and the coach will embark Friday for a two game jaunt with Klamath Falls this Friday and Saturday. The following players are to leave Friday morning by bus: (school bus if the weather permits) Hargus Colley, Dennis Brown, Robert Kincaid, Ralph Fortune, Gene Snook, Kenneth Trautman, Lester Hansen, Wallace West, Milton Hilkey, Scott Rupp, and Ted Franks. The two managers are Bud Meadows, and Don Faber. These boys will attempt to beat the strongest hoop squad in the conference this year. Klamath Falls hasn't lost a game this year and the Pointers are facing two tough games Friday and Saturday.

Playing excellent basketball all the way through, the Pointers defeated Grants Pass on the Pointer court, Friday, by the score of 39-33.

Although the Pointers trailed 10-7 at the end of the first quarter, 19-18 at the half, and 27-30 at the third quarter mark, they rallied in the last five minutes to surge out in front to win the game.

In the last five minutes the Pointers went on a 12 point spree with Dennis Brown scoring 6 points, Hargus Colley 4, and Lester Hansen 2, to put the game on ice. Jack Orr of the Cavemen was the high man of the evening with 15 points, and Dennis Brown and Wallace West each counted for 9 points for the Pointers.

The Grants Pass Junior High trampled the Pointer frosh by the score of 37-15.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their sympathy and flowers during the loss of our wife and mother.
