A Teen-Age Club skating party was held Monday evening, March 29, from 7:10 to 10 p.m. at the Medford Armory. Transportation was furnished by cars and the Evergreen bus.

CAPS, GOWNS ORDERED—

The seniors have been measured for caps and gowns, and these orders, along with those for announcements and cards, have been sent. The caps and gowns ordered will contain the school colors, maroon, blue and white.

MOVIE COMIC—

The senior class is planning an hour and a half feature movie and a candy sale to held soon. The movie will be shown to the high school with an admission price in order to raise money for the annual fund. The probable date is Monday, April 5, but it is subject to change, according to Bud Meadows, class president.

CALIF. NEWCOMERS—

Bill and Bob Rozell, from Barstow Union High School, California, registered here, Monday, Bill, who is tall with dark hair, is 17 and a senior. His brother Bob, who is also tall and dark, is 15 and a sophomore.

Bill likes good books, music, horseback riding, and, don't snoop, girls, but I think he said "Women," too. He plays the drums and was editor of the school paper in Barstow.

Bob is taking some junior subjects along with his sophomore studies (the smarty) and is interested in shop.

Barstow High School has about 400 students and probably the longest bus route in the U.S., according to Bill.

Which Shows That Starving Students Will Buy "Anything"

"What's in it?"
"Is that ground-glass, or nuts?"
"Will it hurt me?"

These remarks might have been in the minds of the students who were standing around a table in the hall, Wednesday noon, by the expressions on their faces.

The senior girls were conducting a sandy sale to raise money for the senior class, and these doubtful glances were cast on the home-made fudge and divinity displayed.

The girls, nevertheless, plan to make this a weekly project.

Irish Convention Beholds Green Pig

The mystery of the Green Pig was cleared up at the St. Patrick's Day Party, March 18, at the high school gym. As the students rushed up to the box, held by Rocky Davidson, they were surprised to behold either their own reflection or Rocky's face reflected in a mirror.

The party was sponsored by the Girls' League, and the games were planned by the faculty. The students were divided into ten groups, and identified by Irish namings written on shamrocks, pinned on each person.

The O'Shays, Murphys, Dugans, Mc Gees and others competed against each other in relays, charades and a game of hot potato. Mr. Jewett, along with many others, was viewed in a football uniform; Susan Culbertson was a "Lonely Little Petunia in an Onion Patch"; and MacManara's Band marched around the gym.

Before the refreshments, consisting of jello, cake and mint punch, were served, a program, planned by the students was presented. Ruth Powell, and a trio, composed of Kay Grantham, Lou Ann Boes, and Marilyn Keenan, sang; Barbara Powell and Kay Grantham played the piano; and Rocky Davidson delivered a comedy dialogue.
