A miscellaneous shower was held recently at the Harold Allen home honoring Miss Marian Dievert, a sister of Mrs. Allen, who was married last Saturday to Charles E. Cooper, of Gates, Oregon. Invited to the affair were Mesdames G. A. Dierdorff, R. G. Swanson, Weldon Sloan, Marjorie Williams, George Paul, Clara Ziegler, Miss Barbara Ziegler, Mrs. Vernon Allen and Sue Dievert, also the guest of honor, Miss Dievert.

Marie Brewer and Barbara Inman, of San Jose, Calif., spent several days the past week visiting Miss Billy Sullivan in Central Point.

John Pinkham, who is a lieutenant in the reserve air corps reported July 26th for duty at Spokane, Washington. He was one of the pilots to fly a B-29 bomber over the Idlewild International Airport at New York on July 31st when it was dedicated. It being the greatest air demonstration during peace time in the history of aviation, President Truman and Thomas Dewey were among the 215,000 spectators. John landed Monday at the airport in Medford and spent the night with his family; leaving Tuesday morning. He will return home Aug. 10th.
