Golden Link Class Holds Xmas Party

The Clarence Houston home was the scene of a lovely Christmas party held Friday for the members of the Golden Link class of the Church of Christ. The rooms and table were made beautiful with white stock and Ivy. And a beautiful decorated Christmas tree. Forty one guests sat down to a bountiful dinner at one o'clock. After the tables were cleared away, two clever skits were presented by Ken Pounds and his daughter, Nadine of Ashland.

Following a short business meeting and the picking of new pals for the coming year, gifts were taken from under the Christmas tree and each secret pal revealed.

A beautiful wool blanket was presented to their pastor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Camp, as a gift from the four adult classes of the Bible school. The Pounds also received a gift. Several members of the class were unable to present, so sent greetings and gifts.
