

Sportsmen's Club Holds Annual Election

The Central Point Sportsmen's club met at their club room on the Jacksonville highway for their annual election of officers. Steve Benson presided at the meeting. Following are the new officers chosen for 1949:

Harry Elden, president (unanimous choice); John Wisely, vice president; Jim Ross, secretary-treasurer; Directors, Bert Peck, Don Faber, Mervyn Gleason, Sr., George Vangalder.

It was voted to change the monthly meeting night to the 3rd Wednesday in each month.

Plans were made for the annual shoot with the Medford Gun club. George Vangalder was chosen captain for the occasion and John Wisely, Lieutenant.

Pictures were shown by Bert Peck, with the films donated by the Anders' Photo shop. Following the meeting an elaborate lunch was served by a committee consisting of Bert Peck and the Gleason boys, Merv and Jim.

About fifty members attended the meeting.

Save The Day, Make Onion Soup the Easy, Convenient Way—

ONION SOUP is a universal favorite and the recipes vary as much as the countries from which they originate. Some use a cream sauce base, others use meat stock, but who always has the time to make cream sauce? Or who always has meat stock on hand? You can have a delicious onion soup without those ingredients, though. From the recipe given here, note how simple it can be, how easily and quickly it is made. Then delight in the way your family goes for Favorite Onion Soup.

Favorite Onion Soup

- 7 medium-sized onions or 1 1/2 lbs.
- 1/4 cup Nucoa margarine
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 6 cups water
- 7 bouillon cubes
- 1 1/2 teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce
- Salt to taste
- 6 slices French bread, toasted and spread with Nucoa margarine
- Grated Parmesan cheese

Slice onions thinly and cook gently in Nucoa until golden, sprinkling with pepper while cooking. Add water, bouillon cubes and Worcestershire sauce; cover and simmer 30 to 40 minutes or until onions are very tender. Pour into serving bowls, float slices of toast on top; sprinkle them thickly with cheese. Yield: 6 servings.

and deposits, $614,019,664.35. On June 30 loans totaled $163,875,390.3, and deposits $572,979,049.71.

President Belgrano said that the total deposits, loans and resources of the group as a whole again made the First National Bank group "First in Oregon." He said that from the standpoint of earnings, First National had its third best year, with earnings of $3,722,27.53 after taxes, but before dividends, equivalent to $10.34 per share. This brings the total capital funds of First National to a new high of $30,520,735.86, with a book value of $84.78 per share.
