Presbyterians Plan Potluck Dinner

Members and friends of the Central Point Presbyterian church will meet this coming Friday evening, February 25, in the church parlors for the regular monthly potluck dinner, at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Al Setnes is coordinator for the evening's entertainment which will follow the dinner, and include the moving picture, "Who Is My Neighbor?" The picture depicts the story of a Samaritan family and their unusual experience in Jerusalem, and portrays events true of the Samaritan parable as told by Jesus. The story reaches its climax on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho.

The Westminster Fellowship club, young people's group of the church, will assist in serving the dinner and other details of the evening.

selections. Refreshments were served on tables decorated in the valentine theme by Lola Blackford, Mrs. Harry Ellis and Mrs. Barnett.

Guests of the P. L. Fahnlunds last week end were Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Ollmann from Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Mr. O. R. Young of Winnachie, Washington has been visiting his brother, Mr. Marion Young this past week.

Mrs. Dorothy Jones and family from Trail spent several days last week with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammond, and also at the home of the Lloyd Hammonds. She reported lots of snow and that the Trail school was closed several days because of snow and bad weather.

Several people of the district enjoyed skiing at the Bill Smith place on the Old Stage Road while the snow was here.

Mrs. Flora Shaw has moved to her sister's place, Mrs. C. F. Smith.

Mr. Don Cole has bought the Marion Young house, that sat by the railroad tracks and is moving it the place formally owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dunnivant and Mrs. Viola Moore were callers at the Lloyd Hammond home Sunday.

Mrs. Floyd Shore taught school three days last week at the Medford Junior High.

Oscar Blackford, very ill last week, is better now.

15 Years Ago—

Mrs. L. C. Grimes called on Mrs. E. C. Richmond this week. Mrs. Richmond is staying at her son's home in Medford. She has been quite ill but is somewhat better at present.

Mrs. Jesse Hamrick is spending today and Friday with her daughter, Mrs. George Simpson, in Medford.

A number of Central Point members of the Eastern Star attended a meeting of that organization in Jacksonville Monday night, among them being, Mrs. Guy Tex, Mr. and Mrs. S. Collins, Mrs. Ed Vincent, Mrs. Ellis Clark and Mrs. Esther Sanderson.

John Eddy and Alice Maple were business callers in Medford recently.

Mr. T. A. Marine and "Fat" Obenchain had a chinning match recently. We understand that Marine won by one chin. Now he thinks if Fat would only stop eating so many doughnuts he might catch up with him. (By the number of doughnuts Fat made disappear we wonder "Is he hollow?")

O. T. Wilson of Sams Valley had the misfortune to have his separator room containing his winter supply of bacon and a separator, destroyed by fire last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hedgpath and daughter, Merle, visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, in Phoenix recently.

The Odd Fellows have purchased the equipment of the Gateway Service station of Vern Pendleton and have rented the station to Mr. Day who expects to open it about the first of March.
