P. Jewett, superintendent. The freshmen led in the food sale race with $36.75.

"Watch out! I don't know how to stop yet! Hey! Who tripped me?"

These exclamations were undoubtedly heard at the sophomore skating party, March 31, at the Skytop skating rink in Medford.

About 30 sophomores and their guests skated from 7 to 10:30.

A school bus was provided and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Schopfer chaperoned the group.

Turf To Be Planted On Football Field

"What are the boys doing on the football field? Surely not working!"

This remark is in reference to the clearing of the football field of rocks to permit seeding the field this week, and the answer to the question, "are they working?" is: "Yes they are!" They are working to fulfill a cherished dream of Pointer football fans for many years, a football field equal to any of the "A" schools in the district; a field with smooth turf and lights to enable the high school football team to play night games at home in the years to come.

The poles for the lights, according to Coach Cecil Warner, will be erected within the next two weeks.

Local Lady Writes Interesting Poem

Mrs. Elizabeth Stein, mother of Mrs. E. F. Heinrich who makes her home with her daughter and son-in-law at 6th and Laurel, is a lover of poetry and writes it as the following indicates:

EASTER JOYS

Lest we forget, today He arose,
Let all nations join and sing
All Hail! the power of Christ, our Lord,
Our redeemer and risen King,
Jesus willingly went to the cross,
To die for the sins of man,

That He might redeem him through
His blood,
That was His wonderful plan.
Today unto us He left His Peace,
With all our sins forgiven,
As He arose a victor from death's tomb
And ascended into heaven.
"Is prepare a place for you I go"
That where I am ye may be also,
We're grateful for thy promised
word,
And humbly wait thy coming Lord,
We thank thee, Our Heavenly Father
For the gift of Thine Only Son,
Who died, was buried, and lives
again.
Christ, the three in One,
Again with joy we bow our hearts,
In thanks, for the Cause He came,
The gift of our redemption
In Jesus' precious name.
