Sophomores Lead
Honor Roll Record

Nine boys and twenty-one girls, a total of thirty students, representing an increase of seven over the names appearing on the honor roll for the last six weeks, made up this six weeks honor roll.

The sophomores led with eleven students; the freshmen next with nine; the seniors had eight; and the juniors only two.

Pointers Split With
Myrtle Creek 5-6, 4-1

The Pointers baseball team dropped into third place in the JDJ League last Saturday by losing their conference game 5-6.

Myrtle Creek by virtue of having won six and lost none is leading and Eagle Point is second, winning four and losing one.

The Pointers hit Weaver of M.C. for innings then he was replaced by Brown. The Pointers hit Brown but couldn't get the hits when needed and so failed to turn up more scoring.

Herb Colley led the batting with 2 hits in 3 official times at bat. Les Hansen was the Pointer hurler.

In the second game Bigham and Johnson shared honors on the mound.

The Pointers started their onslaught in the third and M.C. could collect but one run.

Both games were played mostly in the rain on a very wet field.

Pointers Down
Ashland 11-2

The Central Point Pointers baseball squad is strongly in the race for district honors after their defeat of the Ashland Grizzlies on the Lithia City field, April 27.

The game was close the first four innings but the Pointers started piling up runs and beginning with the fifth and sixth stanzas the final result was never in doubt.

Les Hansen and John Bigham divided hurling honors for the team. Hansen was winning pitcher.

The Ashland errors helped Central Point to bring in runs and Sam Glass slapped out two hits in five trips to the plate while Hansen got a pair of safeties in three times at bat, including a home run, to lead the Pointers hitting.

Line score:
Central Point — 040 114 1—11
Ashland ————— 001 100 2— 2
Hansen, Bigham (4) and Anhorn; Hanseum and Kenny.

Joe's Associated Service

Front and Pine Central Point

He had been a meat cutter by trade and had been employed by several shops in Medford and at Faber's Market in Central Point.

His brother in law, Paul Nitzschke, was with him most of the time during his last illness.

On Dec. 5, 1913 he was united in marriage to Katherine Nitzschke McJimsey, who passed away last October 13.

After the death of his wife, Katherine last fall, he had made definite plans to live with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nitzschke as soon as he could sell his home.

He is survived by his mother and five brothers, who live in the east and a brother in law Paul Nitzschke of Central Point.

Funeral services were conducted at the Perl funeral home Thursday at 10:30 A.M. with the Rev. D. E. Millard officiating. Interment was in the Central Point cemetery beside his wife. Pallbearers were Everett Faber, Oscar Minnick, George Howard, Dale Fornbrook, H. C. Vernon and Dale Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Richardson, Portland, became the parents of a son this week, it has been learned here. Richardson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson, Table Rock. The baby was born at the Emanuel hospital. The elder
