Parents and Friends Attend Bethel Meet

A large number of parents and friends of Central Point Daughters of Job, as well as members of neighboring bethels, attended a meeting of the bethel Wednesday at which the group celebrated its first anniversary of institution.

Initiation was held, with Misses Beverly Mero and Dorothy Frost, Medford, and Myrna Lee Scott becoming members.

Guests included Mrs. A. Z. Dean, Medford, guardian of the Medford bethel and a messenger of the grand guardian council; Andrew Stevens, Ashland, grand inner guard; Mrs. Ira D. Canfield, worthy matron of Reames chapter; Grant Todd, Medford, member of the budget committee of the Oregon Eastern star.

The sextet from the Medford bethel, directed by Mrs. Darell F. Huson and with Miss Margaret Huson as accompanist, entertained with two numbers. Accordion solos were given by Miss Mildred Zittercob of the Ashland bethel.

Mrs. Everett Faber, guardian, H. P. Jewett, associate guardian and the staff of the guardian council presented the Central Point bethel with an altar cloth. In the birthday spirit, daughters and members of the council each contributed a birthday offering.

It was announced that May 18 the bethel would stage initiatory work for the Masonic lodge of Central Point at the Masonic temple at 7:30 p.m.

Refreshments were served in the dining room which was cleverly decorated with murals sketched by Miss Jan Freeman. The table centerpiece was a large cake made by Mrs. E. C. Faber, grandmother of the bethel's first queen, Miss Patsy Faber. After the meeting the cake was presented by bethel members to an invalid and honorary member, Mrs. Sarah "Grandma" Vincent.

Flowers for decorations were furnished by Mrs. Wallace Freeland, and arranged by Mrs. C. W. Meyer, advisor, Miss Laura Jewett and Miss Lucy Harnish. For refreshments and serving were Mrs. Merle Obenchain, Mrs. August Wheeler, advisors; Misses Donna Lavin, Shirley Lyman, Carol Horsley, Marilyn Jantzer, Shirley Peebles, Pat Brown; clean-up, Miss Mary Lou Rupp, Miss Eletha Scholler and Miss Jewett.

C. A. P. News

It was decided a few meetings ago to have a wiener roast once a month. The first one was held Monday night, May 9 at the Military bridge. Walkie-talkies were taken along and the cadets combined business with pleasure by studying correct radio procedure.

The meeting last Monday night was well attended, 20 being present, and radio-telephone was the subject discussed. Need for radio discipline, how to talk over radio telephone, explanation of phonetic alphabet, etc. were gone over and a review of these subjects will be held at the next meeting Monday, May 23.

Mrs. Gordon Tabbot of Aztec, New Mexico, has returned to Central Point and has an apartment at Shady Oaks.
