ASHLAND, OREGON

"I can get along with Pearson," (Democratic State Treasurer) stated State Secretary Earl Newberry in Portland last week.

Whether or not that meant he cannot get along with team-mate Republican Governor McKay remains to be seen "come filing time" next spring. Then we'll know if he is listening to the gremlin gossip about the political and personal appeal of the handsome Ashland pear peddler, and that he should—just should—run for Gov.

OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

Talking about CVA (the bureau-inspired boogie which is being battled by seven Northwest governors of the portion of the US currently plagued by DC demigods) Secretary of State Earl Coe lambasted Governor Arthur B. Langlie for his announced stand against the proposed Columbia Valley Administration. As an authority, he cited the report of the Hoover Commission, which calls for more efficiency in government. We suggest he re-read the Hoover report. Nowhere in it does it recommend authorities—the setting up of powerful three-man boards responsible to no one but Truman.

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

Because this year's Northwest lettuce crop is pre-mature due to "unusual" hot May weather, the California market has been dealt a hard blow. Market roads between Los Angeles and San Francisco are speckled with "fallen heads." Where are the erstwhile scramblers who used to watch, dart out and pick them up?

PORTLAND, OREGON

From "bags to riches" might well be the motto of self-made Polish-born Bill (Bag) Messal, owner of the fabulous and successful Messal Bag company here. From a 1932 fifteen-cent-an-hour laborer to the present head of a pulsing vital industry, Messal takes a dim view of the antics of bail-jumping Communist Gerhardt Eisler, just freed by an English Bow street court after U.S. extradition attempts failed. Messal spat, "Good ex-Polish citizens are ashamed of Eisler. He's worked like a termite to undermine our fine government, which is supported by a free enterprise system and founded on the principles of individual dignity and freedom. Now he cries like a coward for fair-minded treatment and justice—the things he has worked to destroy."

HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA

The writer in Cannes, France, who referred to Rita Hayworth's marriage manners as those of a seasoned trouper is being considered as a possible recipient of some kind of an Oscar. It could easily start a tradition.

Note: Anything that happens twice in Hollywood is a tradition.

MILL CITY, OREGON

A lease was lost, so scene for the traditional Manolis homecoming party for Oregon senators and representatives will be shifted from Manolis' State House restaurant to his new Deluxe Drive-In affair now under construction near Mill City, where Genial George and Jolly Josephine Manolis will feed hungry Army Engineers—members of the same great organization that built Bonneville—instead of legislators and capital coterie.

OREGON-AT-LARGE

Great savings, compactness and economy may all be yours, say the government advertising executives in a blatant card posted in Post Offices telling John and Jane Doe to buy their airmail stamps in booklet packs. Bargain-advertised book of 12 (new) 6c airmail stamps sells for 73c. Doesn't 12 times 6 equal 72? Uncle Sam, where's the bargain? Is this an example of the efficiency of Government in business?

$1500 Reward Offered
To Finder Lost Men

A reward of $1,500 is offered for the location or information leading to the location of Colonel A. Y. Smith, Air Force, Colonel Walter W. Hodge, Army, and Master Sergeant H. E. Sluga, Air Force, or their bodies. This offer expires June 30, 1949.

This will be paid by the wives of the men who disappeared in a B-26 on April 21, 1949, on a flight from Hamilton Field, California to Portland, Oregon. When last heard from, near Portland, the plane had a supply of gasoline sufficient to take it to any part of Oregon, Washington, or back into Northern California.

A search or certain areas conducted by the air rescue service ended on May 12, with negative results. It is believed by the families that the men may have parachuted or landed in some remote area and may be awaiting rescue.

Anyone finding these men contact the nearest ranger station, sheriff's office, highway patrol, army or air force station, or the civil air patrol headquarters, 291 Geary Street, San Francisco, California. The reward money is on deposit at the American Trust Company, Presidio of San Francisco, California.

Billy Wearne Recently
Discharged from Navy

Billy Wearne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Wearne, of Sams Valley, arrived home from Charleston, South Carolina, Naval Base May 15th on his birthday. He drove from coast to coast in 4 days. Billy, a commissary 3rd class, was discharged from the Navy on May 4, after serving a hitch of 4 years, 3 years of his time being overseas. His boat was U.S.S. Hobson D.M.S.

His father was also in Navy as Lieutenant and engineering officer and served through World War II. Billy came home just in time to help his father, who broke his leg recently, on the farm doing chores which greatly helped his mother who has been doing a great deal of the heavy work about the place.
