

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Shrier, sons Jimmie and Gene returned to the Sand Point Naval Base, Seattle last week.

Mrs. Ethel Grubbs of Pendleton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ellis Burrough this week.

Mrs. Walter Frank and Mrs. Elaine Taplett of Medford visited over the week end with Mrs. Frank's son and wife, Albert Bradley. Albert is in the bakery business in Reno. They had a grand trip in Mrs. Taplett's new Chevrolet. Reno is some lively town. It's a grand place to spend your money if you lean that way, so you had better take a trip to Reno.

Mrs. Maxine Nolte and boys Bill, Dan and Mike have returned home to Willows, California after spending some time in Central Point with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Musty.

Miss Mickey Camp is in training at the Shrine hospital for crippled children in Portland, where she is assisting in the care of the patients. She will be home for a vacation some time in August.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Mervin McAllister, 503 West Clark street, Medford, July 19, 1949, a boy, 8 pounds, at Sacred Heart hospital.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Croucher, route 1, Central Point, July 16, 1949, a girl, 9 1/2 pounds, Sacred Heart hospital.

Lesson 2

Question: What is a Squash?

Answer: A squash is a vegetable (Ask Joe Krupp) and it also is a sickening sound of a car and a tree meeting up for the first time.

Remedy: Have your service man inspect your brakes now and every six months there after. It is a job he will gladly do without charge.

Ferney M. McKibben, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKibben of this city, a cadet at the United States coast guard academy at New London, Conn., recently spent five days in London, England, in connection with the summer training cruise of the academy. The transatlantic trip was made in the three masted barque, USS Eagle and the cutter, USS Campbell.

Miss Georgia Landing and Mr. Red Sihi accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Minor and Yolanda to Crater Lake Sunday and the party then decided to go on to Lakeview. Mr. Minor's sister, Louise of Lakeview, accompanied them home for a visit.

Mrs. Laura Crain of San Francisco visited Mrs. J. H. Kavaleski of Gold Hill last week. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baldwin, Mrs. Kavaleski's parents, drove them to Crater Lake for the day.

Mrs. Josephine Whaley returned this week from the Community hospital and is able to walk some.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Musty returned home from Roseburg after attending the funeral of Mr. Richmond.

Mr. Henry Kilburn went to the Camp White hospital recently where he had two teeth extracted.

Dakotans to Picnic at Hot Springs July 31

The North and South Dakota Picnic Association will meet Sunday, July 31, beginning at 10 a.m., at Jackson Hot Springs for their annual picnic. All former residents and their families in Southern Oregon and Northern California are invited to bring their lunches and attend. Ice cream, coffee and cream will be furnished by the association. Ed Goehring will be chairman of refreshments.

According to the committee—Al Setness of Central Point, Amos Hiatt and Eric de Place, of Medford, they plan to make this the biggest of the Dakota picnics to date. Some of the many events planned include: Prize for the oldest couple; prize for the largest family present; prize for family coming longest distance; prize for youngest baby; tug-of-war between the North and South Dakotans—for men, for women and for children. There will also be races, including a relay race between North and South Dakotans. Several other events are being planned.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The Legion Auxiliary held their regular meeting, July 14. Harriett Wheeler and Gayle Cottier were present and gave a very interesting talk on Girls' State. The Auxiliary has recessed until September.
