COOS BAY, ORE. Bill Walsh, otherwise known as Senator William Walsh, president of the Oregon Senate, bears such a striking resemblance to the Great Emancipator, Abe Lincoln, that he has to literally keep beating off Hollywood agents with clubs to make them understand he is not interested in a movie contract.

Note: We hear by the tuberosa grapevine he is also being sought out as a candidate for a national political spot.

PORTLAND, ORE. Ninety-nine varieties of food (and all you can eat—2ds and 3rds are in order) are yours for 99 cents at the "Mister Jones" restaurant located on Highway 99 as you leave Portland going north.

Gourmets and java drinkers (they keep a coffee pot boiling on your table all the time) can really be big shots for less than a dollar.

The owner, whose real name is actually Wade Woodyard, says this is the realization of his pet lifetime dream—a restaurant designed and priced for the common man. Note: We wonder... what about the common woman?

SALEM, ORE. During the American Legion convention in Salem last week there was a quiet little affair given for the Governor at the Elks Temple. Good fellowship (literally) flowed all over the place.

BOISE, IDA. The world is changing! There's nothing ever new. And to be sure, there's nothing impossible and all these old cliches are applicable in modern-day politics.

Who would have believed that the cowboy-singing Senator Glenn Taylor who hitched up with Henry Wallace on the Progressive presidential ticket would so soon be back in the fold with the Democratic party... but... it's so.

This leads one to speculate upon future possibilities. What if Jimmy Roosevelt succeeds in becoming Governor of California? He wants to be, you know. Then what if he and Congressman F. D. R., Jr., decide to run for the offices of president and vice-president, respectively?

PORTLAND, ORE. The term GREY MARKET, which means something between black market and questionable trading, and NATURAL RUBBER, which means exactly that, but was formerly called 'crude rubber', which was very confusing, are two of the words which have been added to the English language by Oregon author Robert Ormand Case during the course of his twenty-five years of writing.

OREGON-AT-LARGE: Update Oregon weekly runs a headline "Advertisement for Wife draws Heavy Response" over a UP story from St. Joseph, Mo., which told about a fellow who advertised for a wife and picked one (was it for avoidupolis, Mister Editor?) from the 253 who answered.

State Juvenile Grange To Hold Camp

The annual Oregon State Juvenile Grange summer camp will be held this year at the Smith Creek Camp in the Silver Creek Falls State Park, August 24th through the 28th.

A camp program of classes, recreation, swimming and hiking are combined to make an interesting session for the children. Juvenile Grange demonstration work and Lecture programs will be held each evening. Any Juvenile grange members 10 years of age or over, is eligible to attend camp. Juvenile Mothers, Patrons or parents who act as chaperons are also eligible. Applications for camp should be sent in as soon as possible. August 10th was originally set as the deadline, but applications will be accepted until the camp quota is filled. Applications, accompanied by the camp fee, should be sent to Mrs. Helen Roberts, State Juvenile Grange Superintendent, Reedsport, Oregon.

Mr. C. W. Powell and daughter, Ruth, left Sunday evening for Med-desto, Calif., after their piano and some other things they had stored there. They returned home Wednesday morning.
