Supt. H. P. Jewett went to Portland last week to look over plans for the new high school building with an architect. The school board will consider the plans at their meeting Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cardwell and little daughter, Sandra, of Taft, Cal., are spending his vacation with relatives and friends in the valley. They are house guests of Mrs. Cardwell's sister, Mrs. Graham, in Medford. They called at the A. E. Powell home Monday for a brief visit. While living in Central Point they lived in the Powell apartment for almost two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hesselgrave returned home Tuesday evening from a month's vacation spent in the coast. They also visited friends and relatives in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Minor and little daughter, Yolanda, left Wednesday evening for Lakeview for a short visit with Mr. Minor's parents, and also for a brief deer hunt.

Building permits issued by the city for the quarter ending September 30, amounted to $42,350.00.

Mrs. Viola Hill arrived here Wednesday from Stockton, Calif. for a few days visit with her sister-in-laws, Mrs. Maud Helm and Mrs. Ruth Helfrich.

Among those to attend the funeral here of Mrs. Laura Abbott, were her two granddaughters, Mrs. G. L. Ransdell, from Springfield, Oregon and Mrs. V. A. Rose of Big Bar, Calif. While here, they visited at the home of Mary E. Moore, also their grandmother.

Johnny Trask and wife, Edith, and the baby, Francis, and Mrs. Elmer Greer's mother, Mrs. Belle Trask, will leave Tulsa, Okla., Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Greer of this city.

Nevita Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Edwin Andren, 2435 East Main St., in Medford last Friday night with twenty-one present. A most enjoyable evening was spent, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Betta Pankey, of East Main, Medford, entertained Mrs. Mollie Neal and Mrs. Ernest E. Scott to luncheon last Thursday.

Mrs. Howard Fox was an overnight guest at the home of C. W. Abbott. He was here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Laura Abbott. His home is near Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber left Thursday for Walla Walla, and returned Monday evening. Mr. Faber was a delegate on church business. They stopped to see their daughter, Patsy, who is a student at Willamette University studying pipe organ which she enjoys very much. They also visited their son, Don, a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Gilbert Danikin who was injured last February in an auto accident near the Big "Y" and was hospitalized in Sacred Heart hospital, then later sent to the Veterans hospital in Portland, on Aug. 8th, had recovered sufficiently to return home here on Saturday, but on Friday he had the misfortune to break the leg over, and had to undergo an operation Friday and another this Wednesday.

Mr. Elmer Greer shot a nice three-point buck at the Applegate district.

Mrs. Sarah Tucker, of this city, and mother of Mrs. May Anning suffered a severe heart attack on Monday, but is much improved.

Mrs. John Clark, who recently underwent surgery at Portland, is now with her parents in Medford. Her daughter, Dian is with her.

Congratulations to C. W. (Doc) Houston who went out and got his deer the first day, and it was a big one.

Miss Lysle Gregory with several other teachers are leaving Thursday morning for Klamath Falls to attend the County School convention to be held there. Ethel Chastain, a teacher, was a caller in the Gregory home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hilton, of 413 Arcadia St., Medford, and who also have property here, have traded their home in Medford for a home with two acres of farm land just beyond the fair grounds of Grants Pass on the Crescent City road. We regret to lose the Hiltons from our community and hope they soon return.

Mrs. Isabell Ross received the sad news of the death of her mother, Mrs. J. E. Gibeson, of Yerka, Calif., early Monday morning. Mrs. Ross had been with her mother on Sunday and returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Ross and daughters, Jean and Donna Lavin will leave Wednesday morning to attend the funeral services that afternoon. Our sympathy is extended to the family.
