

Job's Daughters' Activities

Immediately preceding the regular meeting officers and choir members wearing their robes, and other members visited. Mrs. Sarah Vincent, who is an honorary member of the Bethel. Songs were sung. Mrs. Vincent's guest book signed and a corsage and other gifts were presented, after which the girls returned to the Masonic Hall for their regular meeting. Members of the Guardian Council joining the girls on this visit were Mrs. Everett Faber, Guardian and Mrs. Orville Hamilton, Mrs. Merritt Swing, Mrs. C. L. Chew and Mrs. Ernest Jermark. Mr. Swing, Past Associate Guardian, Bethel No. 14, of Medford, and Mrs. Paul Jones were also present.

Mrs. Vincent has been ill for some time past, the girls have visited "Grandma" as she is known to them several times. Mrs. Vincent is very much interested in the girls and this very worth while organization.

As a reminder next Sunday night is the regular going to church night. Officers and choir members will meet at the Masonic Temple at 6:45 p.m. to put on their robes.

All members, parents, guardians and friends are urged to attend this service which will be held at the Church of Christ, Sunday evening, October 16th, at 7:30 p.m.

Remember girls, the first skating party will be held at Skytop rink, Monday, October 31, 1949. The rink has been reserved for members and their guests for this occasion.
