Jobs Daughters Activities

There will be a Christmas party Thursday evening, December 8, following the regular meeting of Jobs' Daughters' Central Point. A gift exchange is planned and the girls anticipate with pleasure a birthday addenda for one of their guardians.

Those attending Friendship night at Medford Bethel No. 14 Job's Daughters report enjoying a delicious dinner and a very pleasant evening.

There will be no meeting of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 38, Central Point on Thursday, Dec. 22. While this is a regular meeting night it is so near the Christmas holiday that a special dispensation has been received authorizing the cancellation of this meeting.

Instead of having a Queen's Ball this term it has been decided to have a banquet in honor of the retiring queen, Miss Jean Hamilton. The banquet will be held in the dining room at the Rogue Valley country club at 5:45 P.M. on Dec. 29. Members and their guests are requested to meet at the Masonic Temple, Central Point, at 5:20 P.M. for transportation.

Following the banquet officers, members and guests will return in the Masonic Temple, Central Point for the installation of officers for the new term. The installation is open to the public. The time is 8:30 P.M. Dec. 29.

All new officers and members of the choir will practice for the installation Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 23 at 1 P.M.

The Golden Links Ladies Bible class hold their annual Christmas party and dinner at the home of Mrs. Doc Houston on East Pine St. Friday noon. Exchange of gifts and learning who their secret pal has been for the past year is one of the interesting things. A large attendance is expected for this Christmas party.

Locals

Mr. Leland Dysinger had the misfortune to cut his leg badly while operating a power saw. He was rushed to the Sacred Heart hospital where it was put into a cast and he was brought home but will have to keep the cast on for a week or ten days according to reports.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Mose on Nov. 30th, a son.

Brant Culbertson who has been stationed at Key West, Florida for about two years, just recently had a visit with his mother, Mrs. Sarah Culbertson and sister, Susie, being here about five or six weeks. He has now returned to his station in Key West, Florida. He is Seaman 3rd class.

The Cal-Oregon association gave a banquet at the Country Club Tuesday night for the visiting cattle men and general representatives here for the Cal-Oregon Herford show and sale, about 75 or 100 being present. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. John Bohnert, Mr. and Mrs. Fields and Bruce and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jacob, of Prineville.

The annual 4-H banquet was held at Roxy Ann Grange hall Wednesday night. Helen Blumenstein and pupils entertained with a fine program acrobatic numbers, and tap dancing. Helen also accompanied the whistling solo given by Mrs. Norman Gail.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Glenn arrived early Saturday morning from Huntington Park, Calif., where they attended the triple funeral of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Norman Hansen and young son, also her father, Mr. Logan. They stopped for a day's visit with Mrs. Glenn's daughter and family in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Mack. Norman and his sister, Mrs. Cecil Vincent, went on to Lewiston, Idaho, to attend the funeral services there where interment was made. Saturday, Dec. 3, then returning to Central Point, Norman has been visiting his folks here until Thursday of this week, leaving that morning for South Gate, Calif. He hopes to be able to come home here for the Christmas holidays.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Mel Williams, of Grants Pass and formerly of Central Point, a son, on Monday, Nov. 28th, named Joel David. Mr. Williams, who is stationed at Honolulu, is home on leave and will be here until after the Christmas holidays.

Antelope 4-H Club held their pot luck supper and annual achievement meeting Thursday. Those attending from here were Leonard Freeman and family, th R. H. Fields, and the John Bohnerts.

The pictures shown of China by Bob Nason at the Church of Christ Tuesday night, gave a most vivid description of the terrible conditions there. We who live in United States, can hardly comprehend people living under such circumstances. The Missionaries there are doing a wonderful work in helping both spiritually and physically.

Mr. L. H. Camp is confined to his bed at home with a severe case of poison oak. He and his son, Dwight went to the hills for a Christmas tree and greens. While there they built a bon fire to roast some weinies and must have by mistake gathered some of the poison oak branches and burned, which ended a very bad case of poisoning. Dwight however, escaped without it.

Mrs. Henry Kilburn, who returned several days ago from Portland, where she took Mr. Kilburn to the Veterans hospital, reports he underwent surgery on his jaw Wednesday of last week. He wrote he very much wanted to come home this Saturday to be able to see his daughter-in-law, Mary Pence Kilburn before her departure for Guam but it will depend on the decision of the doctors.

Ten Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Askwith spent Sunday at Prospect bringing home some Christmas trees with them. Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty have received word from their son, Dorsey at Oakland, Calif., that he fell 20

The HISTORY of ELECTRICITY

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN WAS THE FIRST MAN TO ACTUALLY PROVE THAT LIGHTNING IS ELECTRICITY THROUGH HIS FAMOUS KITE FLYING EXPERIMENT OF 1752. BEFORE THAT TIME LIGHTNING WAS THOUGHT TO BE ANYTHING FROM SULPHUROUS VAPOR EXPLOSIONS TO A SORT OF CELESTIAL ARTILLERY.
