

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keep of Mapleton, Oregon, were visitors at the Cliff Smith home last week, on their return from Fresno, Calif., where they had been called by the death of Mr. Keep's sister. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Keep are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Offentbacher of Medford recently returned from a Portland hospital, where they both underwent serious operations. Mr. Offentbacher operated a farm on the Applegate for many years and Mrs. Offentbacher, eldest daughter of County Judge J. B. Coleman, has served as secretary to the county court for the past nine years. Their many friends will be glad to hear of their complete recovery.

Mrs. Roger Yost, of Corning, was in Central Point Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Shell, an old family friend. She visited a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Jones before returning home.

Miss Mary Jane Matthews and Mr. Willie H. Fischer were married Saturday, but owing to the death of her uncle, Mr. James M. Sutherland, Friday evening we were unable to get the information about the wedding in time for this issue.

Mrs. Grace Shirier underwent a major operation last Friday morning at the Community hospital. At last reports she is doing as well as could be expected.

Well drilling operations have started on land just west of the Floyd Hilton home on Taylor Road by Don Bohnert, who is now living with his wife in the Hilton house. The Bohnerts expect to build a new house on the property in the near future.

SKATING PARTY—

Children of the Jacksonville, Central Point and Medford Presbyterian churches will hold a skating party Saturday, February 25 from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Medford armory. Parents are to take and call for their children and there will be an admission charge for skating.

WRC MEETS—

The Women's Relief Corps met in regular session Tuesday evening of last week at their hall with nine members present. Lovely refreshments of jello, cookies and coffee were served. It was decided that in the future the corps would meet the first and third Thursdays at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

BIRTHDAY PARTY—

Janet Dick, Jacksonville, was honored on her fourteenth birthday this week when girls of the Central Point and Jacksonville Westminster Fellowship clubs gathered in Jacksonville for the surprise affair. Games were played and combined valentine and birthday motifs were used for table decorations. Traditional birthday cake and refreshments were served. Miss Dick was the recipient of many gifts.

DOUBLE STORK SHOWER—

Mrs. Dale Burns' home was the scene of a double stork shower last Friday evening February 10 by the ladies of the Community Bible Church.

The honor guests were Mrs. Hal Cleaver and Mrs. Nathan Pinkham, both of whom received many beautiful gifts.

After the gifts were opened refreshments were served.

Junior High News

In a very close vote the classes elected to be known as the Central Point Spartans rather than Pointer Pups. The vote was 119 for Spartans and 114 for Pointers. So from now on we'll be known as the Central Point Junior High Spartans.

On the 23rd of February we play three games here with Ashland, the seventh, eighth and ninth grade teams and the starting time will be sixth-thirty.

These are original verses written by Junior High students who are members of the Poets' Corner Club.

The Snow and the Night

The snow outside is glistening white;

The moon gleams on a silvery night.

The driveway's covered, the roadway shining;

Clouds sail by with a silver lining.

The fire light warm, the candle bright,

The silvery moon and the snow pure white,
Make a beautiful, glorious, wonderful night

By Anita Kay Conger, 6x

Winter

Winter is like a white fairy land,
With snow-white paths on every hand.

Hills are white; valleys are light.
This beautiful blanket comes in the night.

Sometimes it also comes in the day.
And then in the night it melts away.

The silvery moon is shinning down.
The world is still; there is no sound.
By Judy Parrish, 6Y

Winter in the Mountains

I like winter in the mountains,
With its trees like fairy fountains,

When its glistening snowflakes fall
On the garden path and wall.

And boys and girls go skiing by
Like birds skimming through the sky

Jack Frost crept forth one still clear night

Like the Snow King
On his flight.

He flew to the mountains and
powdered its crest
Like swarms of bees huddled in their nest.
